

Industrial hygienist hired

An industrial hygienist has been hired at the University to work with technical occupational health problems.

Marshall Van Ert will assist Robert Sudmann, director of Environmental Health and Safety.

Van Ert, who holds a master's degree in Environmental Engineering from the University of North Carolina, will work with preventing health problems such as heat stress, dust, noise, radiation and toxic chemicals.

Drop-in hours extended

Drop-in hours at Westmoreland Community Center, 1545 W. 22nd Ave., have been extended for fall term. Daily hours will be 9 a.m.-10 p.m. Monday through Thursday and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Fridays until November 19.

Free activities available include ping-pong, billiards and use of the gymnasium when it is not programmed for recreation classes. Recreation equipment is available at the center.

Westmoreland Center is operated by the Eugene Parks and Recreation Department. For information, call 687-5316.

Applications due Oct. 20

Applications for Danforth Graduate Fellowships for 1978-79 will be accepted until Oct. 20 by Larry Owens, Honors College director.

The fellowships are open to qualified persons with serious interest in careers teaching in colleges or universities and who plan to study for a Ph.D. in any field common to undergraduate liberal arts curriculum in the United States. The stipends are based on individual need.

Norwegian returns home to edit texts

Ingrid Weatherhead, a University foreign language lecturer, will return to her home in Norway next summer to edit textbook editions of Norwegian literature and history to be used for teaching in American universities.

Weatherhead has been awarded a travel stipend of about $1,200 through the Norwegian Emigration Fund of 1975 to bring Americans of Norwegian descent back to Norway to study some aspect of Norwegian-American relations.

Weatherhead teaches on a half-time basis in the Department of German and Russian.

Waiver test scheduled

Students scheduled to take Writing 121 either winter or spring term may try to waive the first of the two writing courses required for graduation.

In November, prior to winter term registration, the two-part test will be given at the University Counseling Center. The essay and objective waiver exam involves two and one-half hours of testing.

Students successfully completing both parts earn a non-credit waiver for the class.

P.E. prof says 'aloha'

University physical education instructor Robert Ritson will present a speech on perceptual motor movement and movement education for the pre-school youngsters at the Pre-school Educators state convention in Honolulu, Hawaii in October.

Correction

The fall orientation issue contained an error: Jefferson Pool is located at 16th and Jefferson and is indoors. Amazon Pool is closed for the season.

Ritson will also conduct a workshop with the Kamehameha Elementary Schools in an effort to improve existing physical education programs there.
