

'Response Evening' set

Station personnel to take part in Listeners' Response include John Shepherd, David Primuth and Katie Sloan from KWAX; Tim McCartney from KLCC; Bob Rathmun and Michael Canning from KRVM and Bob Mundt from KOAC.

Friends of Public Broadcasting is a nonprofit organization whose purpose is to promote the local public broadcasting stations by increasing the listening audience and providing needed equipment when funds permit.

The Friends of Public Broadcasting organization invites listeners of public radio in Eugene to a "Listeners' Response Evening" tonight with managers and program directors of the three local public stations.

Representatives of KLCC at Lane Community College, KWAX at the University and KRVM at School District 4-J will be available to answer questions from listeners during the discussion at 7:30 p.m. in the Harris Hall main meeting room, Lane County Courthouse, 125 E. 8th Ave.

Political scientist to speak

A talk on "Equality of Educational Opportunity in Eastern Europe: Class and Sex Differences" will be given at 2 p.m. Thursday in the EMU (room to be announced).

The Center for the Sociological Study of Women will present the lecturer, Joseph Fiszman, University professor of political science. For more information, contact the center at 686-5015.

Bring those recyclables

A recycling pick-up sponsored by B.R.I.N.G. will be held Thursday from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. at 13th Avenue and University Street. Recyclables accepted are glass, cans, aluminum, cardboard, returnable cans and bottles and paper sacks.

For more information, call B.R.I.N.G. at 746-3023.

Bike registration underway today

Bikes can be registered in the EMU today through Friday by the University Bicycle Control.

The purpose of the registration is to offer students a free campus license to help prevent theft and to aid persons if they lose their bikes.

Any bicycles that aren't registered will be impounded by the Campus Security office.

According to city ordinance, however, bikes should also be registered with City Hall. Those licenses are $2 for one year.

The Police Department has a list of impounded bicycles for which there is no owner. Call 687-5106 for more information on missing bicycles.

Library hosts artist Ross

The Eugene Public Library will host a reception for a local artist, Jeremy Ross, tonight from 7:30 to 9 p.m. in the library gallery at 13th Avenue and Olive Street.

Ross works with oils and watercolors and has attempted to capture the landscapes around Eugene and Springfield on canvas.

For more information, call 687-5450.

Ticket buyers beware

A number of season athletic tickets have been lost or stolen and the Athletic Department and the ASUO is warning potential ticket buyers to beware.

The AD will watch for these tickets at future football and basketball games and will not honor them unless they're in the possession of their rightful owner.

The missing tickets are numbers 33941, 30079, 30227, 30756, 33027 and 33778. Students should not buy tickets with these numbers.

Lisa Barnhardt of the ASUO said students buying tickets should pay for it by check or obtain a receipt, so they will have a record of the transaction.

OSPIRG meeting planned

Health care costs and planning for future health care delivery will be the topics of discussion at the weekly OSPIRG meeting, today at 3:30 in the EMU (room to be posted).

Paul Kaptur will detail several projects involving comparative costs of health services, options for student health insurance and a survey of doctors in the area.

The region No. 2 Health Services Agency is beginning its planning sessions with public participation meetings scheduled for mid-December.

Alaskan film screened

A slide show and film on the Alaskan wilderness proposals will be shown tonight at 7:30 in the EMU Forum Room.

The film, "Admiralty Island: Fortress of the Bears," is produced by the Sierra Club and is an in-depth portrayal of the island in southeast Alaska that has the largest concentration of brown bears and bald eagles on the North American continent.

The slide show discussed the National Wildlife Refuge, National Park and Wilderness proposals now before Congress in the Alaska National Interest Lands proposal. These shows are free to the public and are sponsored by the University Survival Center.

Option deadline nears

Students are reminded that Friday is the final day to make changes in grade options for fall term classes. They have until 4:30 p.m. at the Office of the Registrar to change from pass/no pass to grade or vice-versa. Department stamps are not necessary.

POLICY

The Emerald's briefs column is open to anyone wishing to announce meetings, lectures or miscellaneous events. Briefs are run only once and are subject to space limitations. They should be typed and triple-spaced in a 65-character margin. Include all pertinent information, including the date you want it to run. Also, include a name and phone number in case we have questions. Events with donations or admission charges will not be considered.

All items must be turned in by 2 p.m. the day before publication at the Emerald Office, Room 300, EMU.

A career in law—without law school.

What can you do with only a bachelor's degree?

Now there is a way to bridge the gap between an undergraduate education and a challenging, responsible career. The Lawyer's Assistant is able to do work traditionally done by lawyers.

Three months of intensive training can give you the skills—the courses are taught by lawyers. You choose one of the seven courses offered—choose the city in which you want to work.

Since 1970, The Institute for Paralegal Training has placed more than 2,000 graduates in law firms, banks, and corporations in over 80 cities.

If you are a senior of high academic standing and are interested in a career as a Lawyer's Assistant, we'd like to meet you.

Contact your placement office for an interview with our representative.

We will visit your campus on:
