Music school changes line-up of fall concerts

The University School of Music announces two schedule changes to add to its upcoming programs.

The Vocal Jazz Ensemble will perform Nov. 18 in Beall Hall at 8 p.m.

The student recital of Tamera Sexton, Robert Howard and Ruth Chapman will be performed Nov. 18 at the First Congregational Church, 24 Harris St., at 8 p.m.

ASUO vote ends today

Today is the final day of voting in the ASUO fall general elections. Voting booths will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at locations outside Gilbert Hall, the law school and 150 Science. Students can also vote from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the lobbies of the library and the EMU. Dorm residents can vote in the Hamilton Complex and Carson Hall cafeterias from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Candidates are vying for positions on the Incidental Fee Committee, the Student University Affairs Board, the EMU Board, OSPIRG and freshman class offices. Three constitutional amendments are also on the ballot.

Students need to present their plastic ID card and their fall term fee card in order to vote.

Space shuttle topic of lecture

Rockwell International's Space Shuttle Program will be the topic of a presentation by John Latin, a member of the technical staff of the Space Shuttle Orbiter program in Downey, Calif.

Latin will describe a typical mission Thursday at 3:30 p.m. in 150 Geology. A short film of the Space Shuttle Orbiter 101 Free Flight will also be shown.

The Space Shuttle is the first reusable, high performance spacecraft that will make weekly trips into space in the next decade.

The colloquium is sponsored by the University physics department.

MEETINGS

University Libertarians will meet today in Room 206 Friendly Hall.

Reviewers of the Role Environmental Impact Statement-Bonneville Power Administration for the Survival Center will meet in the Center Thursday at 7 p.m. to prepare testimony for the B.P.A. public response hearing. Call 686-4356 for information, or if unable to attend.

The Social Work Interest Group (SWIG) meets today at 8 a.m. in the basement of Hendricks Hall. Social work majors and those interested are encouraged to attend.

There will be a meeting of people interested in working to get the State Board stock out of Southern Africa Thursday at 4:30 p.m. The meeting will be to discuss activities in the next two weeks in preparation for the Nov. 18 meeting of the State Board here in Eugene at which a vote will be taken on the stock. There will also be a discussion of recent events in Southern Africa. Because of a lack of rooms, those planning to attend today's meeting will get together on the EMU Terrace and then move to a table in the cafeteria.

MISCELLANEOUS

The Center for the Sociological Study of Women presents Joseph Fisman, political science professor, speaking today on "Equality of Educational Opportunity in Eastern Europe: Class and sex differences." His talk will be from 2-3 p.m. in the EMU, room to be posted.

The biology department will sponsor a talk today by Dr. Katalin Rozsa, research director at the Institute of Biological Science in Tihany, Hungary on the "Effect of Monamines on Insect Development," at 3 p.m. in Room 16, Science I. There will be a tea at 4 in Room 75A in Science II.

Asklepiads, the premedical honorary, is now accepting applications for membership. The requisites are one term of organic chemistry and a science G.P.A. of 3.3 or better. Applications will be available in the Pre-Health Sciences Center office (107 Friendly Hall) until Friday.

POLICY

The Emerald's briefs column is open to anyone wishing to announce meetings, lectures or miscellaneous events. Briefs are run only once and are subject to space limitations. They should be typed and triple-spaced in a 65 unit character margin. Include all pertinent information, including the date you want it to run. Also, include a name and phone number in case we have questions. Events with donations or admission charges will not be considered.

All items must be turned in by 2 p.m. the day before publication at the Emerald office, Room 300, EMU.
