

Women taught defense

The University Women's Referral and Resource Service will sponsor a workshop on self defense for women, Monday from 7 to 9 p.m. in the EMU, room to be posted.

The workshop will feature a film on "Rape: The Right to Resist". Members of the women's class of the Eugene Karate Club and members of the Amazon Kung Fu Collective will give demonstrations of advanced martial arts techniques.

Following the demonstrations, simple defense techniques will be taught. Participants are encouraged to wear loose clothing.

For more information, call the Women's Referral and Resource Service at 686-3327.

Percussionists top show

The University Percussion Ensemble will perform on Sunday at 4 p.m. in Beall Concert Hall.

The fifteen percussionists in the group will be directed by music professor Charles Dowd.

The compositions on the program will include "Cataphonics" for ten players by Lawrence Weiner; "Three Movements for Percussion Ensemble" by Roger Keagle; "Sketch" by Ronald Lo Presti and "Triptych" by Anthony Cirone.

Featured performer in the group will be Robert Kempf, soloist in William Kraft's "Encounters VI, Concertino for Roto Toms and Percussion Quartet." This will be the Oregon premiere of the Kraft composition.

Kevin Super, timpanist, will perform a solo from Dr. Sy Brandon's "Concertino for Timpani and Percussion." This composition was written and dedicated to Dowd in 1976. Sunday's performance will be a world premiere of the composition.

There is no admission charge and the public is invited to attend.

Poets slate free reading

The Villard Street Poets will hold a free poetry reading tonight from 6 to 8 p.m. in the EMU Forum Room. Yesterday's Emerald calendar incorrectly reported the mike would be open after 8 p.m. The reading, however, will end at 8 p.m. and the open mike will continue throughout the session.

Everyone is invited to listen and read, especially beginning poets.

POLICY

The Emerald's briefs column is open to anyone wishing to announce meetings, lectures or miscellaneous events. Briefs are run only once and are subject to space limitations. They should be typed and double-spaced in a 65-character margin. Include all pertinent information, including the date you want it to run. Also, include a name and phone number in case we have questions. Events with donations or admission charges will not be considered.

All items must be turned in by 2 p.m. the day before publication at the Emerald office, Room 300, EMU.

Most Loved "Love Story" of This Decade

Harold & Maude is one of those films that people love to see, and once is not enough!

In its current Portland run there are literally thousands who have come to see Harold & Maude for their second and third viewings. One young lady has religiously returned over thirty times.

This film ran continuously for over two years in Detroit and Minneapolis. This ranks it along with the other timeless comedies — King of Hearts and A Thousand Clowns.

The reason for all this is obvious — Harold & Maude is so filled with love it makes you feel good. It's a comical tale of a macabre Harold (he's 20) encountering the wisdom of Maude (she's 80). It's the most loved "love story" this decade!

Need we say more, other than we've brought out a new print so you can enjoy Harold & Maude even more.
