

Applications accepted

A scholarship fund established through the University Development Fund will take applications for spring term ships until Sunday, at the Chinese and Japanese Department in Friendly Hall.

The Japanese-American Friendship Fund is the project of the University Alumni Association of Japan, which was founded in Tokyo in 1974.

Partial tuition scholarships will be available to American students studying the Japanese language and culture, and Japanese students studying at the University "who will be able to make contributions to good Japanese-American relations."

Academic excellence and financial need will be the criteria for granting the scholarship awards.

Japanese members of the association raised $3,000 to start the scholarship fund "to show their love for their alma mater and the Eugene community which most still consider their second hometown," according to an announcement from the University's Department of Chinese and Japanese.

Tours offered to Cuba, USSR

Voices of the Future offers student tours to socialist countries of the Soviet Union and Cuba during winter vacations, spring break and summer.

These tours offer a combination of informal discussions with Soviet and Cuban youth and an in-depth look at another social system and culture. Theatres, ballet, schools, factories and youth centers are included in these tours for persons between the ages of 16-30.

Interested persons in the group tours can contact Larry Moskowitz 235 W. 23rd St., New York, N.Y. 10011.

Art committee seeks members

Lane County citizens interested in art are invited to apply for appointment to the Lane County Arts Advisory Committee.

The committee advises the Lane County commissioners on the use of funds and the selection of artwork in county facilities.

Members are appointed to serve two-year terms. The group meets on call in Eugene, and subcommittees of the group work on special projects in addition to attending regular meetings.

Currently four committee members are completing their terms and the application period will be open until Feb. 3.

Application forms are available from the Community Relations Department, Lane County Public Service Building, 125 E. 8th Ave., 687-4207.

Application forms will be mailed upon request.

YWCA needs volunteers

The University YWCA offers an Exceptional Friendship Program for special children, and volunteers are needed to take a Search class to work with special children and learn about specific disabilities and related topics.

The class is taught by Cindy Scharapp in 44 Geology Thursdays at 3:30 p.m., or Wednesdays at 7:30 p.m., in the YWCA Lounge in the basement of the Student Health Center.

The purpose of the program is to give children, ages 4-18 years who have varying degrees of mental and physical disabilities, the opportunities to become acquainted with the community and its facilities with the help of student volunteers.

The class can be taken for up to two credits or as a practicum. For more information, call Frank at 686-4435.

Alloys colloquium set

The physics department will sponsor a colloquium on "The DeHaas-VanAlphen (DHVA) Effect in Dilute Alloys," Thursday at 3:30 p.m. in Room 16, Science I.

Allen Wasserman of Oregon State University will show that the DHVA experiment can, in certain circumstances, give resistivity relaxation times as well as the usual Dingle temperature relaxation times.

The DHVA effect has been among the most fruitful experimental techniques for exploring the topology of the Fermi surface and scattering that takes place near the Fermi surface in dilute alloys.
