

Labor board to meet

An advisory committee to the University's new Labor Education and Research Center (LERC), will meet Friday at the Rodeway Inn in Springfield to discuss final candidates for the position of permanent center director and to review several proposals for center programs.

The meeting of the 15-member committee, made up of representatives of state labor organizations, will begin at noon and continue until about 5 p.m. In addition to committee members, LERC staff members and University officials, members of the public are invited to the session, according to Steven Deutsch, University sociology professor and acting center director.

For more information about LERC programs, contact the Labor Education and Research Center 686-5054.

Tennis, everyone!

You're invited. It's the 6th Annual Northwest Invitational Tennis Tournament sponsored by Cascade Federal Savings and Timberhill Racquet Club, January 27-29. ## Friday last day to apply for winter degree

The list of degree candidates for winter term graduation is now being compiled by the Office of the Registrar. Friday is the last day to file an application for degrees to be granted winter term.

This date will be enforced because of the many operations of checking, clearing and printing that must follow.

To qualify for the degree, a student must have completed all necessary work and procedures by the end of the term. All transcripts from other schools that are necessary for a degree should be sent to the attention of Graduation, Office of the Registrar, in order that they may be on file. This includes work taken through the Division of Continuing Education.

Any student who has applied previously and did not receive the degree must reapply. Likewise, any student who does not meet the deadlines must reapply for a future date.

S. Africa films slated tonight

Films presenting two views of apartheid will be shown at 107 Lawrence Hall at 8 tonight sponsored by People for Southern African freedom.

The movies are "Plural Societies," made by the South African government and "South Africa, the Rising Tide," filmed underground by the liberation movement.

Admission is 50 cents.
