

PEANUTS® by Charles M. Schulz

Dads taste University life, food

Billed as "a chance for Dad to visit you in your environment," the senior and sophomore classes, Panhellenic Council, Interfraternity Council and the University Dad's Club are sponsoring Dad's

Choral contest slated at EMU

The Oregon Music Educator's Association District IV Choral contest will be held at the EMU Wednesday and Thursday.

The contest is an annual event that will bring 1,200 high school students to the University campus. In past years, the choral contest was held at the same time as an instrumental festival, but because of construction at Gerlinger Hall and the subsequent reduction in available space, the overall contest was trimmed to choral groups only.

Batiste joins Board of Higher Education

SALEM (AP) — Alvin Batiste of Portland has been appointed to the State Board of Higher Education by Gov. Bob Straub, the governor's office announced today.

Batiste is head of the Bonneville Power Administration's materials laboratory. He replaces Phil McLaurin, Portland, who resigned from the board that governs the state college system.

Weekend Friday through Sunday.

To kick off Friday, organizers suggest "taking Dad to class." From 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., campus tours start from Oregon Hall. Other Friday activities include a tour through the University Art Museum, an ACU-I Regional bowling try-out and two campus movies, "Carrie" and "Drive, He Said" (filmed on campus a few years ago).

Dad's Saturday starts with breakfast from 9 to 11 a.m. at the Faculty Club. Andrea Gellatly suggests pre-registration Friday from 3 to 5 p.m. and Saturday beginning at 8 a.m. in the EMU Lobby. Breakfast costs $2.50 and proceeds go to the Dad's Club scholarship fund.

Oregon cartoons by prominent public figures will be auctioned at the breakfast. Gov. Bob Straub's duck will be sold and Gellatly says they're waiting for ducks from notables like Henry Kissinger and Amy Carter.

Ronnie Lee sent a poster of himself. "Guess he still considers himself a duck," says Gellatly.

Country singer Hoyt Axton said he couldn't draw a duck, so sent booklets of other drawings.

Tours continue Saturday, starting at 8:30 a.m. at 13th Avenue and University Street. For sports-minded fathers, the University meets Washington State at a 2:30 p.m. wrestling match at Mac Court and at 7 p.m., the University hosts a gymnastics invitational, also at Mac Court. Bowling tryouts continue and the Art Museum will be open from noon to 5 p.m.

Author to read works

Don Berry, author of three novels set in early Oregon and science fiction and historical books, will play the guitar and read from his recent works in a free public performance at the University Wednesday.

Berry, a native of Minnesota who attended Reed College in Portland and now lives on an island in Puget Sound, will appear at 8 p.m. in Room 150 Geology. The performance is sponsored by the departments of English and history and Northwest Review, a literary magazine.

In addition to being a writer and musician, Berry is an artist, filmmaker, "student of mathematics and a craftsman and designer of musical instruments, both traditional and computer-related," according to Glen Love, English professor.

Berry's books set in Oregon include "Trask," published in 1960; "Moontrap," published in 1962 and "To Build a Ship," published in 1963.

Positions open in parks dept.

The Eugene Parks and Recreation Department will accept applications for summer leadership, assistants and aide positions now through Feb. 10.

Leaders are responsible for planning and supervising arts and crafts, sports, games and a variety of special activities on the playgrounds, which are supervised from June 19 to August 11.

Applications are available at the following locations: Amazon Community Center, 2700 Hilyard St., 687-5373; Bethel Community Schools, 3825 Royal Avenue, 689-1446; Sheldon Community Center, 2445 Willakenzie Road, 687-5312 and Westmoreland Community Center, 1545 W. 22nd St., 687-5316.

Course schedules ready

All students are urged to pick up a computer copy of their class schedule. These printouts will be available to students Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday in the EMU main lobby. After that they will be available in the Office of the Registrar, second floor Oregon Hall.

The verification of registration is made available so any error in course registration, grade option, credits or address can be spotted and corrected before final grade lists are sent to instructors. It is important that students pick up the printout to avoid any kind of misunderstanding concerning class registration and grade options.

A signed release must be presented when picking up a class schedule for another student.

Errors should be reported to the Office of the Registrar immediately.

Seal slaying sparks talk

Patrick Moore, president of Greenpeace Foundation, an environmental action group, will be the featured speaker during a Seal Involvement Day program Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the EMU Ballroom.

The program is aimed at calling attention to the annual slaughter of baby harp seals, according to Jim Stratton, University Survival Center spokesperson.

According to Stratton thousands of the seals are exterminated each year before they reach the age of three weeks. "Seal Involvement Day is aimed at educating people about this slaughter and informing them of the role they can play in stopping it," Stratton says.

A $1 donation will be requested. All proceeds will go to the Greenpeace Foundation.

Task Study gets grant

A University of Oregon research associate in psychology recently received a $5,588 grant from the Public Health Service for his research entitled "Divided Attention in Vision and Hearing."

John Duncan has been studying the problems encountered with doing two different tasks at once, such as seeing two different objects, listening to a different sound in each ear or seeing and hearing at the same time.

Duncan is seeking to find how the performance of a person will suffer when their attention is divided. He has been doing research in this area for over a year.

Hladky to perform recital

Robert Hladky of the University music school will present a cello recital on Tuesday at 8 p.m. in Beal Concert Hall.

The program will include two solo cello compositions, "Suite No. 3 in C Major for Solo Cello" by J.S. Bach and "Ciaccona for Solo Cello" by Tomaso Vitali.

William Woods, also on the faculty, will join Hladky on "Meditation Hebraique for Cello and Piano" by Ernest Bloch and "Sonata in F Major, Op. 6 for Cello and Piano" by Richard Strauss.

Admission to the concert is free and the public is invited to attend.

UCLA architect to speak

A faculty member from the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA) will deliver a guest talk on "environmental knowing" Wednesday at the University.

David Stea, UCLA professor of architecture, will speak on "Environmental Knowing and Architecture" at 7:30 p.m. in Room 177 Lawrence.

His talk, sponsored by the University Department of Architecture, is open to the public.

Stea has written extensively on mental mapping and "environmental knowing."

briefs

All beginners welcome. Free. Sponsored by the Jewish Student Union.

Alpha Kappa Psi will sponsor another edition of its Speaker Program tonight. Tonight's guest speaker is University Pres. William Boyd, an honorary member of Alpha Kappa Psi. All interested people from the colleges of Business Adm. and Economics are encouraged to attend 7 p.m. in Room 154 Straub Hall.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON PROSEMINAR! Pete Lewisohn will speak today at 3:30 p.m. in Room 156 Straub. His topic will be: "Prospective Study of Depression."

MISCELLANEOUS

There will be bowling at 7 tonight for members of the Black Student Union. Please attend and have fun bowling or just meeting folks.

Israeli folk dancing tonight 8 p.m. at the Newman Center, 18th and Emerald. Teaching and requests.

NAVY OFFICER.
YOU GET RESPONSIBILITY
THE MOMENT YOU GET THE STRIPES.

A lot of companies will offer you an important sounding title.

But how many offer you a really important job?

In the Navy, you get one as soon as you earn your commission. A job with responsibility. A job that requires skill and leadership. A job that's more than just a job, because it's also an adventure.

If that's the kind of job you're looking for, speak to your local recruiter.

Contact:

The Navy Officer Information Team
on campus

Jan 30 - Feb 3

Placement office by appt or ERB Century Rooms

Oregon Daily Emerald

The Oregon Daily Emerald is published Monday through Friday except during exam weeks and vacations, by the Oregon Daily Emerald Publishing Co., Inc., at the University of Oregon, Eugene, Ore. 97403.

The Oregon Daily Emerald operates independently of the University with offices on the third floor of the Erb Memorial Union, and is a member of the Associated Press.

Emerald subscriptions are $7 per term and $20 per year.
News and Editorial 686-5511
Display Advertising and Business 686-3712
Classified Advertising 686-4343
Production 686-4381

Editor Wally Benson
Managing Editor Tom Wolfe
Asst. Managing Editor Becky Young
News Editor Cheri O'Neil
Graphics Editor Adrienne Salinger
Asst. Graphics Editor Jim Payne
Editorial Page Editor Tom Jackson

Sports Editor Mike Marino
Asst. Sports Editor Nick Dawson
Entertainment Editors Jerri Nilson
Cheryl Rudert
Chris Norman

Wire Editor

Associate Editors:
Departments and Schools Melody Ward
Features Jock Hatfield
State and Local Politics Jane Lehman
Community Kevin Harden
State System and Student Services Rich Seven
ASUO Carolyn Beaver
Environment Kathy Monje

Night Editor

Production Manager Betsy Bodine
Advertising Manager Carl Bryant
Controller Jean Ownbey