

Moby Dick surfaces Sat.

The Survival Center and Oregonians Cooperating to Protect Whales will join Saturday to show John Huston's film "Moby Dick." The Great White Whale will surface in 150 Geology, 7 and 9:30 p.m.

The film, for both Melville enthusiasts and lovers of fine cinema, traces the obsession of the tyrannical Captain Ahab in his search to exploit a wild natural resource. Gregory Peck, as Ahab, gives one of his finest performances.

Both organizations team-up on this event to introduce the University community to an upcoming petition drive in support of the whales.

Internship applications for OSPIRG due Mon.

The deadline for the receipt of application for Oregon Student Public Interest Research Group (OSPIRG) summer internship program is Monday. Applications are available at the OSPIRG office in Suite 3, EMU.

Internships are open to students presently enrolled in Oregon colleges and universities or who will be attending school in the fall of 1978. Interns will receive a salary of $1,000 for the summer.

Four to seven interns will be hired to do a team study of alternative growth policies for Oregon and up to eight interns will study such topics as wild rivers, wildlife, health, housing and civil rights of juveniles.

Student applicants may propose their own topics for consideration.

Gourmet cook whips up class
