Halberg, gymnasts record bests in weekend swing to California

The Oregon women's gymnastics team scored a season high 128.85 points to finish second in a triangular meet, Friday night at Fresno, Calif.

San Jose State won the competition with a team score of 130 points. Fresno State brought up the rear with 98.65.

Wendy Halberg led the way for the Ducks, getting her best score of the year in the all-around. Halberg finished in second with 34.30 points behind San Jose's Kris Kletfer, who scored 34.85. Halberg won the uneven bars and vaulting, while Kletfer won the balance beam and floor exercise.

Cindi Gleason got a personal high of 31.75 in the all-around, while Lorene Gamble got a lifetime best of 8.8 on the uneven bars.

In a separate meet, Halberg placed sixth in the all-around competition of the Western Hemisphere Games, Saturday night at Hayward, Calif.

Halberg and teammate Cindi Gleason, who finished sixteenth, were the only Oregon gymnasts entered in the 22 competitor event. Halberg finished with 33.50 points and Gleason has 30.75.

The all-around title was won by Arizona's Karen Christianson with a 35.20 score.

Women's swim team ends perfect dual year

Oregon's women's swimming team completed their dual meet season without a mark Saturday, as they downed both Simon Fraser and Oregon State in Leighton Pool.

The Ducks won by nearly identical scores, beating the Beavers 75-34 and Simon Fraser 77-34. The meet was the final tune-up for the NCWSA regionals to be held in Seattle next weekend.

Kathy Hemmer and Michelle Menkens both had double wins for Oregon, with Hemmer taking first in the 500 Freestyle with a 5:20.70 mark, and setting a personal, Oregon, and Northwest record in the 200 medley with a 2:09.57 clocking.

Menkens won the 100 IM and the 100 butterfly. Tama Cuddeback and Leslie Aiken also won for Oregon, in the 100 breast stroke and 100 backstroke respectively.

Men fall to Simon Fraser after taking an early lead

Oregon came close to a big upset last Saturday, nearly defeating defending NAIA men's swim champion Simon Fraser in a dual meet at Leighton Pool.

Oregon led the meet by a slim four-point margin with three events remaining, but 1-2 finishes in the 100 freestyle and 200 breast stroke, along with a win in the 400 relay, game Simon Fraser the 65-48 win.

All was not bad for Oregon, though, as Tack Goodell had his all-time best in the 200 butterfly with a 1:59.49 clocking. Goodell finished second to Fraser's Mark Hahto.

Steve Hamilton was a double winner for the Ducks, taking firsts in the 200 individual medley and 200 backstroke. Hamilton edged Fraser's Butch Batchelor in both races. Other winners for Oregon were Paul Buvick, with a 22.44 time in the 50 freestyle, and Jay Evans, who won the 100 free in 48.13.

The Oregon medley relay team of Hamilton, Evans, Goodell, and Mike Dole also won in 3:37.64.

200 Butterfly — 1, Mark Hahto, Simon Fraser, 1:59.34. 2, Tack Goodell, Oregon, 1:59.49. 3, Cam Green, Simon Fraser, 2:03.56.

100 Freestyle — 1, Jay Evans, Oregon 48.13. 2, Rob Frundison, Simon Fraser, 49.33. 3, Paul Buvick, Oregon 51.03.

200 Backstroke — 1, Steve Hamilton, Oregon 1:59.22. 2, Butch Batchelor, Simon Fraser, 2:00.82. 3, Burrely, Simon Fraser, 2:01.95.
