

Creator of show on U.S. aging to visit campus

The speech department and the gerontology center at the University are jointly sponsoring the visit of Gwyn Donchin of KQED in San Francisco. Donchin is one of the creators of the Public Television Series "Over Easy," a daily program hosted by Hugh Downs that focuses on Aging in America.

Two recent "Over Easy" shows will be presented at 2:30 p.m. on Wednesday in Room 167 EMU. Following that at 3:30 p.m. Donchin will discuss Project Over Easy and answer any questions from the audience. The public is invited to attend.

For information call Carl Carmichael, 686-4171.

PEANUTS[®] by Charles M. Schulz

Program to train live-ins

A training program for persons interested in possible employment as a live-in companion for handicapped and senior citizens is scheduled to begin next week.

The program, sponsored by Lane County Senior Services and

Lane Community College, will begin Monday. Classes are scheduled Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to noon at the Lane Community College Downtown Center, 1059 Willamette St.

The three-week course will include instruction in first aid techniques, nutrition and personal care hygiene.

For additional information, contact Lane County Senior Services, 687-4038.

Fashion show benefit set

A preview fashion showing of sew-it-yourself fashions for spring and summer will be presented Thursday, at 8 p.m., at the Valley River Inn.

The show is co-sponsored by Stretch & Sew and Harper's Bazaar magazine. Ann Person, originator and president of Stretch & Sew, will be fashion show commentator.

Proceeds from the fashion show will benefit the Paraplegic Cure Research Association. Admission is $3.50 and tickets are available at Stretch & Sew, 1165 Valley River Dr.

Broker to discuss stocks

"Stock Investments for the Small Investor" is the title of a free program at the Eugene Public Library Thursday from 7 to 9 p.m.

As part of the "Thursday Night Affair" at the library series, the program will discuss the mechanics of stock investments, what to expect for small investments and common mistakes people make with stocks. David Longood, a stockbroker from Wedbush, Noble and Cooke stock exchange, will lead the discussion and answer questions from the audience.

More information is available at the Eugene Public Library, 100 West 13th Ave., or by calling 687-5450.

Prof to sing at recital

Neil Wilson, music school professor, will sing music composed over the last four centuries when he gives a faculty recital Thursday at 8 p.m. in Beall Concert Hall.

Wilson will be accompanied by Pamela West-Mann on piano. She is a graduate student at the University and is also a faculty member at Oregon College of Education. Other guest artists for the performance will be Les Mar-

Minorities board open

The City of Eugene is seeking applications for persons wishing to serve on its commission on the rights of minorities. Appointments will be made for an unexpired term ending in January, 1980, and for three alternate positions which will become active as openings on the commission develop.

The nine-member commission meets monthly to examine employment opportunities, investigate possible discrimination, and make recommendations to the mayor and city council concerning the status and treatment of minorities.

Persons who have actively demonstrated interest and/or expertise in the field of minority relations and who are interested in working to eliminate injustices related to minority discrimination are encouraged to apply.

Applications can be obtained from the office of the city manager, Room 105, Eugene City Hall, 777 Pearl St., and must be returned by 5 p.m., March 24.

Spend a semester at sea

Dirigo cruises, in concert with Southampton College, announces a "Semester at Sea," a fully accredited, educational experience for 24 students each semester.

The program provides the student the responsibility of operating and crewing a large gaff-rigged U.S. Flag Schooner, an experience in group living and an expanded classroom which reaches from the Caribbean Sea to New England.

The curriculum offers five courses: Coastal Oceanography, Ichthyology, Navigation and Seamanship, Ornithology and Maritime History.

The spring cruise begins March 29, and cost for 15 credits, room and board and laboratory fees is $3,100.

For further information, write Dirigo Cruises, Waterside Lane, Clinton, Conn. 06413, or call (203) 669-7068.

Masters student to show photos

A showing of sculptures, drawings and photograms will be presented in 141 Lawrence Hall with an opening at 7:30 tonight.

James Rappa of New York, who is pursuing his masters degree at the University, will show his art the rest of the week from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the gallery.

Interested persons are invited to view the works.

Cultural arts needs employee

The Cultural Arts Program of the Eugene Parks and Recreation Department needs a part-time person to locate and select clean usable scrap materials for an arts-material recycling center. Art background is preferred. The pay is $3 an hour plus mileage.

For information call 687-5353.

Low-rent tenants sought

Lane county commissioners are looking for county residents interested in serving on the Housing and Community Development Commission, a citizens' advisory committee.

Commission members are involved in furthering the county's housing goals and programs, recommending changes or additions to existing housing and community development policies and performing citizen participation tasks as part of the federal housing and community development block grant program.

Currently, applications are being sought from tenants of low cost housing to fill a vacancy on the commission.

Members are appointed to terms of up to three years. The group meets on the first Monday of each month at 7:30 p.m. in Eugene.

Application forms are available in the County's Community Relations Department, 125 E. 8th Ave., Eugene. Forms will be mailed on request.

Deadline for applications is March 17, 1978.

briefs

MEETINGS

The Campus Zen Fellowship will meet today for meditation from 2:30-3:20 p.m. in the EMU, room to be posted.

Phi Chi Theta (Business and Economics Fraternity) will have a meeting this afternoon, 5 p.m., Room 243 Gilbert, for pledging of new members, election of new president and PR/historian and general business. All members required to attend.

There will be a meeting for all the people who were accepted for "Spring at the Oregon Coast" tonight at 7 p.m., Rm. 219, Sc. III.

LECTURES

Economic Issues Facing Oregon, a lecture by Prof. Ed Whitelaw and Randy O'Toole will be given in Room 410 PLC at 3:30 p.m. today. Sponsored by the Economics Forum.

George Agron, a San Francisco architect, will speak tonight at 7:30 in 177 Lawrence on "An Approach to Applied Research in Architectural Practice."

The Iranian Students Association is sponsoring a conference about recent developments in Iran and the struggle of Iranian people against Shah's regime, at 7 tonight in the EMU.

POLICY

The Emerald's briefs column is open to anyone wishing to announce meetings, lectures or miscellaneous events. Briefs are run only once and are subject to space limitations. They should be typed and triple-spaced in a 65-character margin. Include all pertinent information, including the date you want it to run. Also, include a name and phone number in case we have questions. Events with donations or admission charges will not be considered.

All items must be turned in by 2 p.m. the day before publication at the Emerald office, Room 300, EMU.

Rainier Ale.

Why settle for malt liquor when you can have the Real Stuff?

Rainier Brewing Company, Seattle, Washington

PHOTO DEVELOPING

12 exp$2.89
20 exp$3.99
36 exp$6.25

Everyday Prices

KINKO'S

344-7894

1128-B ALDER STREET

2nd floor Atrium
485-1063

Oregon Daily Emerald

The Oregon Daily Emerald is published Monday through Friday except during exam weeks and vacations, by the Oregon Daily Emerald Publishing Co., Inc., at the University of Oregon, Eugene, Ore. 97403. The Oregon Daily Emerald operates independently of the University with offices on the third floor of the Erb Memorial Union and is a member of the Associated Press.

Emerald subscriptions are $7 per term and $20 per year.
News and Editorial 686-5511
Display Advertising and Business 686-3712
Classified Advertising 686-4343
Production 686-4381

Editor
Managing Editor
Asst. Managing Editor
News Editor
Graphics Editor
Asst. Graphics Editor
Editorial Page Editor

Sports Editor
Asst. Sports Editor
Entertainment Editors

Wire Editor

Associate Editors:
Departments and Schools
Features
State and Local Politics
Community
State System and Student Services
ASUO
Environment

Night Editor

Production Manager
Advertising Manager
Controller

Mike Marino
Nick Dawson
Janri Nilson
Eric Maloney
Chris Norman

Melody Ward
Jock Hatfield
Jane Lehman
Kevin Hardin
Rich Seven
Carolyn Beaver
Kathy Monje

Chris Norman

Betsy Bodine
Carl Bryant
Jean Ownbey