

Book exchange gears up PEANUTS[®] by Charles M. Schulz

If you've had any trouble selling or buying used textbooks, you might consider an alternative to the University Bookstore.

The Alpha Phi Omega Service Fraternity will sponsor a textbook exchange the first few days of spring term. Students who want to make use of the book referral service should start now to make the exchange proceed smoothly.

If you want to sell a book, fill out a slip at the Information and Grievance Center in the EMU Main Lobby, and deposit it in the box there.

The Alpha Chi Omega will then match you up with someone who wants your book. Member John Smith says this time they would like to exchange 300 books for students.

'Past lives' writer's topic

"You Have Lived Before," a free lecture by Aleuti Francesca, a writer, poet and director of the Solar Light Retreat in Southern Oregon, will be held Friday at 8 p.m. in Room 108-110 of the EMU.

Francesca will address the issue of reincarnation and the ways in which the experiences of past lives affect present lives.

There will also be a workshop on "Transmutation of Consciousness" Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in 108 EMU. The cost of the workshop is $25.

The workshop is designed to help people get in touch with what prevents them from realizing their potential and experiencing fulfillment in life.

Francesca will also be available for two-hour Past Life Regressions, in which she will review the past lifetimes of participants.

Consultations are not psychic reading, but are "Regression through Reverie" sessions for a fee of $45.

For more information, call the ASUO at 686-3724.

Aronowitz talks on class splits
