

Nominations still open

Nominations are still open for four awards to be presented to outstanding junior and senior students during Parent's Weekend.

The American Association of University Women will give a recognition award to a senior woman who displays excellence in scholarship, character, personality and service to campus and community life.

The Gerlinger Cup will be presented to a junior women, while the Koil Cup will be awarded to a junior man who shows leadership, service and academic achievement.

The fourth award, the Maurice Harold Hunter Award, covers on year's full tuition to a junior resident of Oregon. This student must show "qualities of leadership among his fellow students."

Applications can be picked up and returned to 372 Oregon Hall. Call 686-3216 for information.

Foreign students tour set

The University will host a foreign student spring bus tour during spring break as sponsored by the Foreign Student Friendship Foundation.

Students will be bused around the state beginning Monday, March 20, and will return March 23.

The tour leaders are Anjum Kazi from Pakistan and Peter Ng from Singapore.

The itinerary includes tours of the state capitol, Multnomah Falls, Bonneville Dam, Mt. Hood and Timberline Lodge, Warm Springs Indian Reservation, Smith Rocks State Park, Lava Butte, among other places of interest.

Some 40 students make this annual tour.

For more information, contact Liz Litchman at 686-3206.

Ed sign-up begins today

A 12-day pre-registration period begins today for Eugene-Springfield area residents who wish to enroll in University classes this spring through the University's Community Education Program.

According to Christopher Munoz, University assistant registrar, area residents will be able to take up to six hours of classes at reduced rates through the program and will have the option this spring of enrolling by mail or in person at the University Registrar's Office, Room 220, Oregon Hall. The pre-registration period will end Friday, March 24.

Munoz says copies of a mail-in registration form will be included in a Community Education Program supplement published in the Eugene Register-Guard. In addition, pre-registration forms will be available at the registrar's office for those who wish to visit the campus to enroll.

Persons who are unable to pre-register for classes may attend a Community Education Program registration session to be held from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Wednesday, March 29, in McArthur Court on the campus, Munoz says.

Full-time University students will register in the day Tuesday and Wednesday, March 28 and 29, and spring term will begin Thursday, March 30.

Health center closed vacation

The Student Health center will be closed during spring break to allow employees time off along with University students.

Beginning Friday at 11 p.m., the center will close its doors and will reopen Sunday, March 26, at 3 p.m. After that, the center will resume regular hours.

A career in law—without law school.

What can you do with only a bachelor's degree?

Now there is a way to bridge the gap between an undergraduate education and a challenging, responsible career. The Lawyer's Assistant is able to do work traditionally done by lawyers.

Three months of intensive training can give you the skills—the courses are taught by lawyers. You choose one of the seven courses offered—choose the city in which you want to work.

Since 1970, The Institute for Paralegal Training has placed more than 2,000 graduates in law firms, banks, and corporations in over 80 cities.

If you are a senior of high academic standing and are interested in a career as a Lawyer's Assistant, we'd like to meet you.

Contact your placement office for an interview with our representative.

We will visit your campus on:

Thursday, April 6

The Institute for Paralegal Training

235 South 17th Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19103
(215) 732-6600
Operated by Para-Legal, Inc.

PEANUTS® by Charles M. Schulz

Guest speakers scheduled for health course

For all students interested in the area of health sciences and services, a seminar class is offered spring term.

The one-hour, one-credit class is entitled "Bio 407 Topics in Health Sciences." It is pass/no pass by attendance only.

Guest speakers will present weekly programs covering eight topics. The variety of topics will encompass varied health interests.

Further information will be available at the Pre-Health Sciences Center, 107 Friendly Hall, or at spring registration.

Radio auditions set for Kidwax

KWAX-FM will hold auditions for children aged 7 to 12 who would like to host the new radio program Kidwax.

"It helps if they are good readers," says Kidwax producer Elena Engel.

Auditions will be at 10 a.m. Saturday, March 18 in Studio C of Villard Hall. For more information, call Engel at 686-4243.

Too-ra-loo-ra-lura on tap

The Boys of the Lough, a group of Irish and Scottish folk singers and musicians, will present a concert at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the EMU Ballroom.

The concert is co-sponsored by Northwest Review, the University literary magazine, and Eugene Folklore Society.

Tickets are $3.50 for the general public and $2.75 for senior citizens and children 12 years old and under. Tickets are on sale at the main desk of the EMU; Kimball Music, 537 Willamette St. and Odyssey Records, 1015 Willamette St. Tickets also will be sold at the door.

Baroque concert slated

The Baroque Chamber music concert will take place at 3 p.m. Sunday, March 19, at the Central Lutheran Church.

Chamber music by J.S. Bach, G.P. Telemann and Jean-Baptiste Loeillet will be performed. The instrumentalists, all University students will perform on flute, recorder, oboe, harpsichord and viola da gamba.

'What you see is...'

"What You See is What You Get" — or how we each create the world we live — is the topic of a three-hour seminar sponsored by the Good Neighbor Project of Family Counseling Services, Wednesday, from 7-10 p.m.

Led by Jerry Edin, Janet Kopp and Allan Flood, the seminar will be held at River Road Park District (Emerald Park) 1400 Lake Dr. A donation, not more than $4, is requested.

For more information, call 342-2551.

Cultural values class set

A new SEARCH course will be offered spring term on "Modern Issues in Freedom." It will cover the origins of cultural values so the individual will be more aware of the forces that influence behavior in contemporary society. Freedom will be considered not only from the perspective of the individual, but with an assessment of society's ability to provide quality alternatives for those unwilling or unable to participate in traditional mainstream values.

The course carries three units of credit and will be taught by a doctoral student from the Center for Educational Policy and Management.

Students may enroll at the educational policy section at registration.

Numbers err in coffee story

Thursday's feature story on coffee contained an error in quantity. The McKenzie Coffee Company stocks more than 20 kinds of coffee and 65 kinds of herbal and black teas, instead of the figures printed.

briefs

MEETINGS

There will be a support meeting for the striking coal miners tonight in the EMU. There will be a discussion on conditions in the mines, the uses of the Taft-Hartley Act and the issues in the strike. There will also be extensive singing of mining and other labor songs. Sponsored by the Mayday and Nam.

The Campus Zen Fellowship will meet for meditation today from 1:30-2:20 p.m. in the EMU (room will be posted).

LECTURES

Stanley Aronowitz will speak on class stratification in American society today at 3 in 101 EMU. Aronowitz is the author of "False Promises: American working class consciousness" and numerous articles on politics, labor and culture.

Lunch Time Lectures Tuesday features Chemistry Prof. John Keena speaking on "Pufferfish and other Poisons." The lecture happens at noon in the EMU Century Room.

SEMINAR: Tuesday, 3:30 p.m., 30 Science I. Tea at 3, 75A Science II. William Wills, Marine Biomedical Institute, Galveston, Texas. "Organization of the primate spino-thalamic tract" (Psychology/Biology Seminar).

SEMINAR: Friday, 8 p.m., 123 Science I. (Lecture jointly sponsored by the Eugene Natural History Society and Biology Department). Robert Storm, Professor of Zoology, Oregon State University. "Experiences with Oregon's Amphibians and Reptiles."

Oregon Daily Emerald

The Oregon Daily Emerald is published Monday through Friday except during exam weeks and vacations, by the Oregon Daily Emerald Publishing Co., Inc., at the University of Oregon, Eugene, Ore. 97403.

The Oregon Daily Emerald operates independently of the University with offices on the third floor of the Erb Memorial Union and is a member of the Associated Press.

Emerald subscriptions are $7 per term and $20 per year.
News and Editorial 686-5511
Display Advertising and Business 686-3712
Classified Advertising 686-4343
Production 686-4381

Editor
Managing Editor
Asst. Managing Editor
News Editor
Graphics Editor
Asst. Graphics Editor
Editorial Page Editor

Wally Benson
Tom Wolfe
Becky Young
Cheri O'Neill
Adrienne Salinger
Jim Payne
Tom Jackson

Sports Editor
Asst. Sports Editor
Entertainment Editors

Wire Editor

Associate Editors:
Departments and Schools
Features
State and Local Politics
Community
State System and Student Services
ASUO
Environment

Night Editor

Production Manager
Advertising Manager
Controller

Mike Marino
Nick Dawson
Jerril Nilson
Eric Maloney
Chris Norman

Melody Ward
Jack Hatfield
Jane Lehman
Kevin Harden
Richard Seven
Carolyn Beaver
Kathleen Monje

Tom Wolfe

Betsy Bodine
Carl Bryant
Jean Ownbey