Hypnotic weekend slated

A weekend for mental health care professionals will be held at 3040 Harris St. Saturday and Sunday from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. on the induction and use of hypnotic and altered states.

Registration is limited to 25 persons and five openings are left at this time. To register, contact Donald Moine at 686-5573 or the American Association for the Advancement of Clinical Training at 485-3317.

Weaver, Wood to meet

Jim Weaver, Fourth district congressman and Bob Wood, Lane County commissioner, will meet in a public forum today at noon in the EMU Ballroom.

During the meeting, sponsored by the ASUO, the two Democratic candidates for the Fourth District will discuss their positions and respond to audience questions.

At 1 p.m., Weaver will speak to the University Veterans Association, a new ASUO group offering job and housing referrals, counseling and help with academic problems.

Weaver will speak in the Dad's Room, second floor of the EMU, and discuss HR 9981, a bill he sponsors that would increase GI education benefits to 54 months.

Donna Arndt, Veteran's Administration regional director, will also be on hand with members of her staff to answer questions.
