

sports

Oregon searches for respect in weekend series with UW

By NICK DAWSON
Of The Emerald

Oregon will be searching for some long lost respectability when it plays host to Washington's Huskies this weekend in the opening Northern Division games for both teams.

The Ducks will battle Washington at 3 p.m. today in a single game and on Saturday the teams will meet in a doubleheader scheduled to begin at 1 p.m.

Last year Oregon suffered through a 14-27 season, 4-14 of that in Northern Division play. The last losing season a Duck baseball team had suffered was back in 1932. At the beginning of the season, Krause was worried about finding that respectability. He hopes it comes this weekend.

Oregon is 10-9 this year. On a road trip to California during spring break the Ducks won eight of 14 contests. However, one of those six losses came against Washington in the San Jose Tournament.

In that game, the Ducks jumped out to a 7-1 lead after the first five innings, but fell apart in the latter innings, allowing the Huskies to pull out an 8-7 victory.

Krause knows what kind of situation the Huskies are in. "I'd rate Washington comparable to us," he said. "They need to get consistent like we do."

At this stage of the game, Oregon is far from consistent, said Krause. "You always worry about everything," he said. "On any given day you never know. If we play the kind of ball we're capable of playing, we can beat them (Washington)."

"If we want to play for a championship, we gotta win all three games at home," Krause said.

Though Oregon isn't a favorite, or even a dark horse for that matter, Krause thinks the Ducks are capable of winning the division title.

"We're going to play for it until somebody says they're better than we are and beat us," he said.

Krause is planning on going with last year's ace, Glenn Fisher in today's game. Freshman Dean Kegler and Adam Berlin will go on Saturday. Kegler leads the Oregon mound staff with a 4-0 record.

DUCK NOTES — Kevin Tabler continues to lead all Duck hitters with a .406 average. Tabler hit his first varsity home run in last Tuesday's 16-2 blasting of Southern Oregon. The senior, normally a catcher, might have to play some outfield this week because of Mike Ritchey's ankle injury...Ron Sloy leads the Ducks in three homers and is the second leading hitter on the Duck team.

Photo by Neil Gruenfelder

Tom Dodd, here sliding into home plate against Southern Oregon on Tuesday, will be leading Oregon into Pac-8 action this weekend against Washington. Dodd is currently batting .343.

Duck netters swamp Seattle

By STEVE JETT
Of the Emerald

Oregon men's tennis coach Buzz Summers had a chance to watch Seattle University Thursday afternoon and he saw something vaguely familiar.

Oregon romped over Seattle 7-2 on the 15th Street courts and part of the reason was the Chieftans' youth, something Summers could relate to.

"They are a young team just like we are," said Summers, as the Ducks used four singles wins and a sweep of the doubles to move their record on the season to 4-7.

"They have a couple of outstanding young players and the others are certainly not pushovers either," continued Summers, who has a team consisting of one freshman and three sophomores among the top six on the roster. Seattle has four freshmen and a sophomore on their roster, which has been heckled by the flu bug.

The Duck win was clinched when the doubles team of Steve Bolstad and Eric Lehto produced a 7-5, 6-1, win. Tom Greider and Russ Childers generated another three set win, 6-4, 5-7, 6-3, jumping to a 3-0 lead in the final set before Greider eventually held serve for the match.

Jim Wilson and Conrad Lopez headed the Duck onslaught in the singles play. Both recorded straight set wins, while Greider used effective groundstrokes to stop Dave Baumer 6-1, 7-6. Tom Goldman turned in the longest singles match of the day before prevailing over Randy Grotem 6-4, 4-6, 6-1.

"This team (Seattle) is not as strong as Washington or the University of Portland, especially in the bottom part of the latter," continued Summers and youth is one of the reasons why.

Among those young Seattle players is Jon Kemper, the former number one man at Sunset High

(Continued on Page 11A)

Peace Corps - VISTA

Now recruiting candidates

for volunteer positions

starting this summer.

687-6493

Condon Hall, Room 315

Mon. - Fri.

University of Oregon

Eugene and University Music Association

presents

Gustav Mahler

Symphony #2 in C minor

"THE RESURRECTION"

featuring

THE EUGENE SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Lawrence Maves, Conductor

and

THE SCHOLA CANTORUM & ASSOCIATED CHORUSES

H. Royce Saltzman, Director

WITH SOLOISTS

DOROTHY BERQUIST
Soprano

and JOAN WINDEN
Mezzo-Soprano

McARTHUR COURT

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12, 8:30 P.M.

General Admission $1.50. This special price made available through a purchase by the Parks & Recreation Dept. with Room Tax Funds in the interest of cultural enrichment for the community.

Tickets at Erb Memorial Union

Reserved Seats $5.00 (1st Balcony) available at Symphony Office only

1245 Charnelton #1, 97401-687-6220

Special Lane Transit Buses from 10th (at Olive) to Mac Court, return after concert. For Bus Info, 687-5555.

1978 MOCTEZUMA IMPORTS, INC., IRVINE, CA

DOS EQUIS

The uncommon import.

Discover the rich, distinctive taste of Dos Equis. The strong character of real beer, with a light, natural carbonation that makes Dos Equis easy to get along with, glass after glass. Dos Equis. The beer that stands out from the crowd. Just like you.