

Page #'s back to normal

Yes, the Emerald staff does know how to count. Just because in yesterday's paper Page 8 was where page 2 should have been, and vice-versa, and Page 11 was where Page 5 should have been, and vice-versa, doesn't mean we flunked Math 095. What it means is that our printer must have flunked Math 095. Whatever the reason, we hope it wasn't too confusing.

TODAY!

Nuclear power foes to air film

"The Last Slide Show," a film about people taking action against the arms race, nuclear weaponry and nuclear power, will be shown tonight at 7:30 in the EMU room to be posted.

After the showing, there will be a discussion about the "nonviolent direct action" to take place May 22 at the Trident military base near Seattle, Wash. This action of civil disobedience is expected to be the largest at an American maximum security facility.

Local sponsors of the May 22 action include the Lane County War Resisters League and the Trojan Decommissioning Alliance of Eugene.

Job workshop seeks students

An eight-week "Life-Planning Support" workshop for students who are having problems with career plans will begin at 7 tonight.

The workshop will focus on self-assessment, job interviewing and communication skills. Information about on-campus and off-campus resources for formulating career plans will also be provided.

For a pre-interview, contact Maria Rojo at 686-3235 or Lee Drucker at 686-3418. Rojo is a counselor for minority groups and Drucker, a masters candidate in mental health and career planning, has experience in counseling and working with groups.

Media, labor plan forum

A two-day workshop at the Eugene Hotel Thursday and Friday will bring together labor leaders and media representatives to consider the role of the media in interpreting labor issues.

The workshop, to start at 8:30 a.m. Thursday in the Emerald Room and at 8:30 a.m. Friday in the Enterprise Room, will include a luncheon address at noon Friday by Oregon Gov. Bob Straub. Straub will speak in the King Cole Room.

Sponsor of the workshop is the Oregon Labor Education and Research Center (LERC), at the University. Co-sponsor of the Straub talk is the Lane County Labor Forum.

Workshop sessions Thursday will be geared to teaching publications techniques to labor union personnel. Friday the workshop will focus on the commercial media's coverage of organized labor.

Participating in Friday panel discussions will be Pat Randall of Salem, secretary-treasurer of the Oregon AFL-CIO; Robert Ingalls, publisher of the Corvallis Gazette-Times; Dulcy Mahar, communications director of the Oregon Education Association in Salem; Fred Webb, news director of radio station KUGN in Eugene; Pat Leyden, commissioner of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service in Portland and David Selvin, editor of Northern California Labor, a San Francisco labor newspaper.

Registration costs are $20 for both days and $10 for Friday only. Forms may be obtained from the Labor Education and Research Center, room 154 PLC, 686-5054.

Earth Week plans begin

The University Survival Center will hold a general staff meeting for everyone interested in environmental issues today at 3:30 in room 102 Gilbert. Members will plan activities and projects for spring, including Earth Week, Sun Day, and Alaska Conservation Day. Contact the Survival Center at 686-4356 for further information.

Film on vasectomy set

Planned Parenthood Association of Lane County will offer a program, "Vasectomy—What's It All About?" tonight at 7:30 at the Eugene Public Library, 100 W. 13th Ave.

A short film will be shown and a physician will answer questions and provide information.

Vasectomy is a permanent method of birth control for a man. It is minor surgery performed in a physician's office.

For more information, call Dorothy Schwarz at 344-2632.

MEETINGS

Monitor Board meeting today at 4:30 in the EMU room to be posted. Members need to attend to help decide tapping procedure.

Problems and Solutions in Prison Transition (CSPA 400M) will meet at the West University Neighborhood House (1458 Ferry St.) for today's class 7-9 p.m. If you have any questions, call Dawn at 485-8341 or 343-4834.

People for Southern African Freedom will meet tonight at 8 p.m. at 1414 Kincaid (across from PLC). Topics for discussion include Friday's speaker, Celistus Ndlovu, representative to the U.N. from the Patriotic Front of Zimbabwe; and the April 22 demonstration at the Oakway Mall against the sale of the Krugermant. All are welcome.

The Political Science Student Union will have a meeting tonight at 7:30 p.m., in the EMU room to be posted. All Political Science Majors are invited to attend.

Today's meeting of the Campus Zen Fellowship has been cancelled.

MISCELLANEOUS

Today, Jim Howard will describe his research on the effects of expectancies on the perception and coding of real behavior. Specifically he is looking at how this relates to juvenile delinquents. (Almost sounds like labeling theory for all you sociology fans.) Room 156 Straub, 4 p.m.

PRE-MEDS: AMCAS forms are now available in the Office of Academic Advising, 107 Friendly Hall.

Group at the Counseling Center to be held Tuesdays 3-5 p.m. Focus on problems you are aware of and become more aware of habits of perception, experience and behavior that may be holding you back. Call 686-3227 for a pregroup interview with Patti or Jesse.

Israeli folkdancing tonight at the Newman Center, 18th and Emerald. Teaching and requests beginning at 8 p.m. Free. Sponsored by the Jewish Student Union.

POLICY

The Emerald's briefs column is open to anyone wishing to announce meetings, lectures or miscellaneous events. Briefs are run only once and are subject to space limitations. They should be typed and triple-spaced in a 65-character margin. Include all pertinent information, including the date you want it to run. Also, include a name and phone number in case we have questions. Events with donations or admission charges will not be considered.

All items must be turned in by 2 p.m. the day before publication at the Emerald office, Room 300, EMU.

Oregon Daily Emerald

The Oregon Daily Emerald is published Monday through Friday except during exam weeks and vacations, by the Oregon Daily Emerald Publishing Co., Inc., at the University of Oregon, Eugene, Ore. 97403. The Oregon Daily Emerald operates independently of the University with offices on the third floor of the Erb Memorial Union and is a member of the Associated Press.
