

Work applications due

The Financial Aid Office is now accepting applications for full-time work study positions for this summer. Ed Vignoul, director of student financial aid, said the financial aid office is running a limited summer work study program for students who will be enrolled fall term and who have filed a regular financial aid application by May 1.

Foreign students get recognition for achievements

The Foreign Students Friendship Foundation presented awards to University students for outstanding achievements and major contributions to international understanding at a recent dinner featuring foreign students in their native costumes.

Yee May Chen Shih of the Republic of China was presented with the most outstanding international student trophy for 1978. Others received outstanding achievement certificates, including Peter Ng and Willy Teo of Singapore, Iheanacho Anukam, Shamsi-Deem Elegba and Emeka Onyegecha of Nigeria, Miguel Morales of Costa Rica, Kanchan Deshpande of India, Anjum Kazi of Pakistan, Rosemary Skebong of Micronesia and Ida Choy of Hong Kong.

A token of appreciation was presented to Mrs. Art Litchman, the assistant foreign student adviser, on behalf of the Foreign Spring Tour Group.

According to Tom Mills, foreign student adviser, "The international students have added to the University's and local community's perspective. We are indeed privileged to have them here."

This is no time to feel insecure

If you're going to make the most of this exciting day, self-confidence is important. And Tampax tampons can really help.

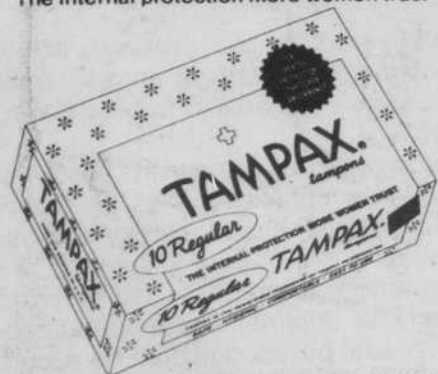

They're uniquely comfortable. In fact, once a Tampax tampon is properly in place, you can't even feel it.

And you never have to worry about odor. Because when a tampon is in use, embarrassing odor doesn't form. (Which is why Tampax tampons don't offer you a deodorant — and the added expense that goes with it.)

What's more, Tampax tampons are designed to conform to individual body contours. So there's less chance of an accident.

Tampax tampons. Because there'll never be another day quite like today.

Anti-nuke lecture tonight

An opponent of the proposed Pebble Springs nuclear power plant will speak at 12:30 p.m. today in the EMU, room to be posted. Lloyd Marbet's lecture is sponsored by the Oregonians for Utility Reform, the Trojan Decommissioning Alliance and the Survival Center. State Rep. Bob Vian, D-Salem, and Commissioner Jerry Rust will also speak.

Three energy initiatives seek to prohibit customers from having to finance utility construction work in progress, simplify the procedures for the formation of peoples utility districts and ban nuclear power in Oregon.

Marbet will also speak at 7:30 tonight in 150 Geology about efforts to stop nuclear power in Oregon. Two anti-nuclear power films will be shown. Admission is free.

Foster homes needed

Juvenile Community Services requests community sponsors to give foster care for youths, ages 12 to 18.

The youths have completed a social/educational program and need families willing to open their homes for both short-term or extended placements.

For further information, contact the State Office Building at 686-7620.

Free session scheduled

Persons interested in learning about the Good Neighbor Project and what its seminars offer are invited to a free introductory session Wednesday from 7 to 9:30 p.m. at the Central Presbyterian Church, 1475 Ferry St.

Sponsored by Family Counseling Services and led by Janet Kopp and Lark Miller, the evening will focus on a brief discussion of the Good Neighbor Project, a sampling of the communication and awareness exercises and questions from the group. For more information, call 342-2551.

Error

The Emerald incorrectly identified two ASUO candidates in Tuesday's issue. Barb Selby is a senior in general science, not a teacher and Owens Harriel's name is spelled Owens Harriel.
