

hear and now

Arts and Entertainment

Thursday, April 27, 1978

STUDENTS INDULGE EUGENE BED MARKET

Breakfast in bed, for many, represents the apex of self-indulgence. Only someone who has wallowed in the sweetness of their sheets while sating their palate can know the true meaning of crapulence. But until recently, breakfast in bed had not been recognized as a potential industry. Two University students, Scott Morgan and Ric Wilson, have made a business out of pleasure. See Page 4B for more.