

Flags honor countries

The flag of Israel will fly over the EMU Thursday to honor Israeli students attending the University.

The display salutes the observance of Israeli Independence Day.

On Wednesday, May 17, the flag of Norway will fly over the EMU to honor Norwegian students on campus.

The display salutes the observance of Constitution Day, Norway's national holiday.

The salute is part of the University's Flag of Nations project. The project honors foreign students attending the University on the date of national observances in their respective homelands.
