

Expert shows liquor film

Decision making and problem solving is the topic of the next alcohol education program Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Scout Room of Central Presbyterian Church.

Laurie Griffith of the Alcohol Traffic Safety Clinic will be the speaker and a film, "The Alcoholic Within Us" will be shown.

The free program is designed for the general public by the Lane County Council on Alcoholism. Anyone interested is welcome to attend.

Last day to file book lists

Today is the deadline for instructors to submit books for the summer reserve in the library.

According to Kathy Lundquist, reserve book room supervisor, there is usually a backlog of materials to be processed at the beginning of each term, so faculty and teaching fellows should bring their personal materials in soon.

Materials now on reserve are not subject to the same deadline.

Dance partners give workshops and performance

Renaissance dancer Angene Feves will present a series of workshops and a performance at the University Tuesday and Wednesday.

She and her partner, Charles Perrier, will perform "Court Dances of the Renaissance" Wednesday at 8 p.m. in Beall Concert Hall. The program includes such dances as the pavane and the galliard.

The dancers will be accompanied by music professor John Hamilton on the harpsichord and by members of the University Early Music Players.

Tickets for the concert and for each workshop are $3.50 for the general public and $2 for students and senior citizens. They are available at the University School of Music or at the door.

German film plays today

There will be a showing of the "Deutsche Sommerschule am Pazifik" by Prof. Langhammer of Portland State University, this morning at 10:30 in Studio B of the library.

Interested students are urged to see the film even though they have no plans to attend the "Sommerschule" German program. Langhammer, who has been associated with the summer program for 20 years, is willing and able to answer any questions students have.

The program at Lewis and Clark College in Portland, offers a unique learning experience: German is spoken during all waking hours and classes are small, approximately seven students per class. There are still several places available.

Anyone with two or more years of college German may apply. Scholarships are available, too.
