Monty Python's Flying Circus. 9:30 p.m. KOZY TV, Cable 11.
"Mission to Moscow" 10 p.m. KOZY TV, Cable 11. 1943 film starring Walter Huston and Eleanor Parker.

MUSIC

Gary Edstrom. Free. Dinner. Homefried Truckstop.
The Basic Elements of Music: Melodies. 2:30 p.m. KWAX 91.1 FM.

THEATRE

"Seascape" $4. 8:30 p.m. Carnival Theatre. Edward Albee's Pulitzer Prize winning comedy focuses on Charlie and Nancy, a middle-aged couple relaxing on a beach, who encounter two English speaking lizards contemplating their lives out of water. The lizards, Leslie and Sarah, are not used to humans and their characteristics, such as clothes, breasts and birth. The lizards start asking questions which Charlie and Nancy find hard to answer. Directed by Faber DeChaine. Reservations: 686-4191.

"Luv" $6.50 advance, $7.50 at door. 8 p.m. Oregon Repertory Theatre, Atrium. An adult comedy by Murray Schisgal. Starring David Ogden Stiers, do-star of TV show M*A*S*H, on stage with George and Priscilla Lauris. A send-up on modern theatre, the institution of marriage, love and a multitude of modern ideas. Advance tickets and reservations: 485-1946.

"The Waves" $2 advance, $2.50 at door. 8:30 p.m. Community Center for the Performing Arts, 8th and Lincoln. The Waves Project, an experimental theatre group from New York, will perform this adaptation of Virginia Woolf's novel. "The Waves" explores the tension between characters who lead violently internal lives and who penetrate each other's spheres with powerful and at times crushing effects. The experimental nature of the play reflects the blend of dance, theatre and music backgrounds of the performers. The play uses space to surround the audience with its environment and the acting style is highly physical, ranging from expressionistic to task oriented activity.

Friday
