French colors mark revolution

The French flag will fly with the U.S. flag atop the Erb Memorial Union Friday in celebration of Bastille Day marking the beginning of the French Revolution in 1789.

The flag is one of 14 received by the University during the recent academic year for ceremonial uses honoring the home countries of foreign students enrolled here.

A total of 66 countries were represented by foreign students enrolled at the University Spring Term.

Chicano center breakfast set

The Chicano Affairs Center is sponsoring a Mexican breakfast benefit at the Homefried Truck-stop. The breakfast will feature Huevos Rancheros and Chorizo Tortillas, plus beans and rice at a reasonable price.

Latino music and an art display will highlight the benefit, which will take place from 8 to 11 a.m. on Monday. Regular breakfast items will also be available.

For more information on the Mexican breakfast fundraiser, call the Chicano Affairs Center at 687-2666.

Alumni families to vacation at Charleston

The ever changing world of marine biology will be unveiled for University alumni and their families during a special weekend at Charleston Aug. 12 to 14.

The occasion is the third annual "Vacation/Learning Experience" being offered by the Alumni Association.

Oregon alumni and their families are being invited to spend the weekend at the Institute of Marine Biology.

Three University scientists will lead participants on field trips along the Pacific seashore and help the vacationers learn more about marine life.

Total cost for the program, which includes all meals and two nights' lodging in student dormitories at the Institute, is $25 for adults and $20 for students under 18 years of age.

Reservations and detailed information may be obtained by contacting the Office of Alumni Relations, Room 217, Susan Campbell Hall. Deadline for reservations is Aug. 1.

Athletic ticket applications open to EORP students

Students in the Early Orientation Program who want to secure an athletic ticket for the 1978-79 Duck basketball games must act now, according to Lisa Barnhardt, ASUO ticket coordinator.

Students wanting to attend basketball games should fill out the appropriate computer card in their registration packet and deliver it to the Athletic Department table at Early Orientation registration. For further information, call Barnhardt at 686-3724.

Amazon, Westmoreland policy and fees affected by new Housing rule

A temporary rule establishing policy and fees for family housing units has been adopted by the University.

The new rule requires that monthly rentals be paid by the tenth day of each month and will impose a $1.00 late fee for payments made after that date.

It also specifies that tenants must give 30 days notice when vacating, establishes policy for refunds of security deposits and rents paid in advance, and allows the University to serve notice of eviction to tenants who are delinquent in rental payments.

Copies of the rule, which became effective on July 5, are available for public inspection.

Interested persons may examine it between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. daily in Room 110 Johnson Hall, Room 361 Law, Suite 4 of the EMU, or at the Catalog Information desk in the University Library.

Business administration offers marketing seminar

The University's College of Business Administration will offer a three-day seminar on the fundamentals of marketing Wednesday through Friday, July 26-28, at the Jantzen Beach Thunderbird Motor Inn in Portland.

The seminar, to start at 9 a.m. each day and include sessions on topics such as the elements of a marketing plan, pricing strategy and product costs, is geared to people new in the marketing area or those who want to update their knowledge of marketing.

Faculty for the seminar will include Donald J. Hempel, head of the Department of Marketing at the School of Business Administration, University of Connecticut, and M. Vendatesan, director of the University's Bureau of Business Research.

Course cost, including luncheons and materials, is $45. However, a 10 percent discount is available to organizations which send three or more persons.

Interested persons can obtain registration forms by contacting the College of Business Administration at 686-3370.

A free orientation for the next Drinking Decisions group will be held July 18 at 6 p.m. in the Lane Community College downtown center, Room 232-N.

The group is designed to assist persons who wish to examine their use of alcohol, with the aim of establishing personal goals and gaining control of their drinking patterns. For more information, phone 484-1712.

Dr. Charles Norris will discuss natural methods of birth control at the Eugene Hospital and Clinic.

Conference Room 3, on July 16 at 2 p.m. Persons attending are asked to use the 12th and Olive St. entrance. Norris is a gynecologist from St. Vincent's Medical Center in Portland.

Summer tennis lessons are being offered by the Athletic program of the Eugene Parks and Recreation Department beginning July 24.

Beginning through intermediate levels are taught for youth ages 9 and up and for adults. The one hour lessons take place in mornings or evenings of Mondays and Wednesdays or Tuesdays and Thursdays. The fee for 8 lessons is $7 for youth and $9 for adults.

Registration is at the Parks office, 858 Pearl St. through the week of July 24.

For more information call Jim Home at 687-5306.

POLICY

The Emerald's briefs column is open to anyone wishing to announce meetings, lectures or miscellaneous events. Briefs are run only once and are subject to space limitations. They should be typed and triple-spaced in a 65-character margin. Include all pertinent information, including the date you want it to run. Also, include a name and phone number in case we have questions. Events with donations or admission charges will not be accepted.

All items must be turned in by 2 p.m. the day before publication at the Emerald office, Room 300, EMU.

Oregon Daily Emerald

The Oregon Daily Emerald is published Tuesdays and Thursdays, during summer term and weekdays during the academic year, except during exam week and vacations, by the Oregon Daily Emerald Publishing Co., Inc. at the University of Oregon, Eugene, OR, 97403.

The Oregon Daily Emerald operates independently of the University with offices on the third floor of the Erb Memorial Union and is a member of the Associated Press.

Emerald subscriptions are $7 per term and $20 per year.
