

Union schedules Holmes movies to raise funds

By MIKE HOPKINS

The University Graduate Teaching Fellows Federation (GTFF) will sponsor a "Sherlock Holmes Film Festival and Benefit" Friday and Saturday.

The weekend's film showings and future fund-raising events will help the union pay its share of the cost of fact finding, a collective bargaining procedure conducted by a state Employment Relations Board official, GTFF spokesman Jeff Edmundson says.

Following eight months of negotiations between the GTFF and the University, union members voted last June 6 to reject the University's contract offer and to request fact finding for the summer months.

Edmundson said the 30-day fact finding process, required by Oregon law before a labor union may strike, could begin as early as mid-August and will cost the GTFF from $250 to $1,000.

The 3½ hour festival will feature three films, all starring Basil Rathbone as Sherlock Holmes and Nigel Bruce as Dr. Watson. "Sherlock Holmes and the Secret Weapon" (1943), "The Woman In Green" (1945) and "The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes" (1939) can be seen both days beginning at 7 p.m. in 177 Lawrence. Admission is $1.50.
