THE ANANDA MARGA SOCIETY PRESENTS

THX-1138

This excellent film by director George Lucas (Star Wars) is one of the better science-fiction films ever made. Less "flashy" than STAR WARS, it relies on subtlety and powerful visual images to get its points across. The story concerns a future society that is completely controlled by drugs and computers. One man tries to escape from this dehumanized society and his journey is filmed in a dazzling array of special effects.
