THEATRE

"The Robber Bridegroom" $4. 8:30 p.m. Carnival Theatre. Written by Alfred Uhry, based upon a novella by Edora Welty, and composed by Robert Waldman, "Robber" is a musical folk tale set in Mississippi, 1880, but strongly derived from European folk tales (Grimm and Anderson). It is very simply told in story theatre fashion: actors narrate as well as perform the actions, and they serve as many characters, forces of nature, birds, animals, props and sets. Reservations: 686-4191.

"The Crunch" $3. 11 p.m. Pocket Theatre, Villard Hall. Controversial one-man play by Marcus Campbell. World premiere.

"Last of the Red Hot Lovers" $3.50. 8 p.m. Oregon Repertory Theatre, Atrium. This Neil Simon comedy deals with a middle-aged restaurant owner's attempts to have a last amorous fling and join the sexual revolution before it's too late. Directed by Bill Richie. Reservations: 485-1946.

"Eyn-Sof" $2 advance, $2.50 at door. 8 p.m. Community Center for the Performing Arts, 8th and Lincoln. A New York theatre piece starring Deborah Nitzberg about generations and the passing of mothers' spirit and experience on to their children.
