Flag to fly for China

The flag of the Republic of China (Taiwan) will fly with the U.S. flag on the Erb Memorial Union flag pole Tuesday in celebration of the country's "National Day."

The celebration marks the date in 1911 when the Republic of China was formed.

The flag is one of 22 received by the University for use during the 1978-79 academic year.

Week of haircuts starts

National Beauty Salon Week begins today and runs through Sunday. The Emerald Empire Affiliate No. 5 of the Oregon Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association will present a week of community service and awareness by having local hairdressers give free haircuts to various groups.

A schedule of events: Monday — Willamalane Memorial Building at 1 p.m. Tuesday — Easter Seal School at 1 p.m. Wednesday — Lane County Jailhouse at 7:30 p.m. Thursday — Skipworth at 7 p.m. Friday — Mental Health Harmony House at 5:30 p.m.

On Sunday in the Atrium the group will sponsor a "Cut-a-Thon" from noon to 10 p.m. Thirty hairdressers will perform basic haircuts for $3.75 and a style cut for $4.75. All proceeds will be donated to the Lane County Muscular Dystrophy Association.

The "Cut-a-Thon" is open to the public.

Student to give recital

A University of Oregon doctoral candidate who will compete in an international piano competition in Italy this fall will give a recital Tuesday at 8 p.m. in Beall Hall.

The pianist, Chris Schindler, will include his repertoire for the Viotto competition in Tuesday's performance. The program will include pieces by Bach, Beethoven, Chopin, Rachmaninoff and Nielsen.

Schindler is a recent winner of the UO spring concerto competition and has twice received a Close Scholarship awarded annually by the School of Music. He will compete in Vercelli, Italy, Oct. 19-26.
