

Student contest scheduled

The National Student Educational Fund is sponsoring, the Better Information Project, Prizes in Education (BIPPIE), a national competition to encourage and recognize original student-produced informational materials.

Each of the 12 best entries will receive $500 and a trip to Washington, D.C. Winners will then give their award money to the student organization or project of their choice.

Individual students and student organizations are eligible to enter the competition.

Application packets are available from the National Student Educational Fund, 2000 P Street N.W. Suite 305, Washington, D.C. 20036.

Parks plan life-saving

An advanced lifesaving class will be offered by Jefferson Pool at 8 — 10 p.m. on Monday and Tuesday, and at 7 — 9 p.m. on Wednesday and Thursday beginning Oct. 16. Instruction will include general water safety, boat safety, rescue, and aquatic first aid. Participants must be 15 years of age or older and be able to swim 500 yards continuously in deep water. The fee for the class is $20.

For more information call the Eugene Parks and Recreation Department at 687-5352.

Work party to be held on mountain

The Outdoor Program is sponsoring a trip this weekend to Jefferson Park at the northern base of Mt. Jefferson.

The trip is planned to clean up fire rings and litter left by careless backpackers. The Forest Service has agreed to furnish pack horses and a wilderness ranger to help carry out debris.

Interested persons should bring sleeping bags and warm clothing for the overnight stay. There is a five to six mile hike to the park, and four to five hours will be spent clearing the site Saturday.

For more information, call the Outdoor Program at 686-4365.

Anti-nuclear speech planned

Energy activist Lloyd Marbet will speak on "Energy Consciousness: A Transition for Change," Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the EMU, room to be posted.

Marbet has been an opponent of nuclear power development for ten years.

Marbet has also been an intervenor in the Trojan spent fuel hearings. His talk is sponsored by the Survival Center.

Halloween candy offered

The Kidney Association of Oregon (KAO) has announced the opening of its 1978 statewide sale of Halloween "Trick or Treat" candy to help finance the cost of providing artificial kidney machines, training and medical supplies for Oregonians suffering from kidney failure.

At the same time, KAO issued an appeal to individuals, civic groups, schools, veterans, fraternal, businesses, churches, youth and men and women's clubs to come to its aid by helping to sell the Halloween candy during the annual fund-raising event.

The Halloween packages contain 20 Sherbits candy 5-flavor rolls, with 30 boxes in each case selling for $2 apiece. If possible, people are asked to order in units of complete cases to facilitate handling.

Individuals and organizations who want to help KAO are asked to send orders for candy to the Kidney Association of Oregon, 7008 N. Interstate, Portland, Oregon 97217, or call KAO at 283-4444.
