Costumes to go on sale at University theater

If you'd like a Halloween costume with more pizzazz than a recycled sheet, you can take your choice of hundreds of items to be offered for sale by the University Theatre Friday through Sunday.

The unique garage sale is the theater's answer to a severe storage problem in the costume shop where costumes have collected for years.

Included in the sale are such diverse items as felt wigs, animal masks, shimmy girl outfits, clown suits and some period costumes. A few props also are for sale and lots of small pieces of fabric suitable for patchwork.

Prices will range from a nickel to about $10. The sale will be held at the Carnival Theatre area south of Villard Hall around the corner south of the entrance to Robinson Theatre. If the weather is bad the sale will be in the scene shop on the same side of the building.

Hours are 12 noon to 6 p.m. Friday (Oct 20) and 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday (Oct. 21).
