

Halloween disco set

People of all ages are invited to join the Eugene Easter Seal School and KBDF Radio for a Great Pumpkin Halloween Disco at Odyssey 3001 in Springfield Tuesday, beginning at 8 p.m.

Prizes will be awarded to the best dancers and those wearing the best costumes.

Hosted by the KBDF air-personalities and sponsored by Pepsi, the disco will raise money for a new therapy pool for the Easter Seal School. Admission is $2 per person.

Sex roles discussed

The University YMCA Women/Speak series will feature "Impressions of Sex Roles in China" Wednesday at noon in the Erb Memorial Union. Barbara Koser, Cynthia Wooten and Jeanine Bennett, participants in the recent U.S.-China Friendship Association Study Tour, will show slides and discuss the roles of men and women in China. Women/Speak is free and open to the public.
