From Associated Press reports

SWEET HOME — Concern over dependency on herbicides has led two ranger districts to revise their roadside brush control program this fall, Willamette National Forest officials say.

Beginning Monday, the Sweet Home and Detroit districts will use a combination of mechanical and hand cutting methods to remove brush along 32 miles of road.

The herbicide Weedone 170, which contains 2,4-D and 2,4-DP, will be used only to treat stumps to prevent sprouting, says John Lowe, assistant forest supervisor.

TEHRAN, Iran — Thousands of protesters clashed with security forces across Iran again Sunday, defying the government's prohibition against demonstrations. Officials said at least eight persons were killed.

Troops used tear gas and fired guns into the air to disperse thousands of protesters in Tehran. No injuries were reported, although riots in many parts of the capital lasted all day.

Military trucks, armored cars and tanks rolled down the streets leading to Tehran University, where more than 10,000 persons gathered to demand the resignation of the government and shout support for exiled religious leader Ayatullah Khomeini, who is living in Paris.

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia — Formal social dancing will be "rehabilitated" in Peking soon, ending a 15-year ban, a Yugoslav report from the Chinese capital said Sunday.

Quoting a brief announcement addressed to foreigners in Peking by the International Club there, the Tanjug news agency said a ball is being organized "at the request of dance lovers." Admission will be 5 yuans (about $2.60) per person.

TEL AVIV — Former Israeli Prime Minister Golda Meir was admitted to Hadassah hospital in Jerusalem over the weekend, her personal secretary said Sunday.

Mrs. Lou Kedar said the 80-year-old former premier was suffering from back pains.

Meir has been hospitalized repeatedly during the past two months since suffering a slipped disc.

While Carter waits for letter

Mideast peace stalls again

JERUSALEM (AP) — The United States has frozen the Israeli-Egyptian peace negotiations while Washington awaits a letter from Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin to President Carter, Israel Radio reported Sunday.

The radio's Washington correspondent, quoting U.S. sources, said the State Department was analyzing the Israeli and Egyptian positions, which include proposals for "far-reaching changes" in the draft worked out by the two sides before the Israeli delegation's return home last week.

In Washington, State Department spokesman Kenneth Brown declined comment when asked specifically whether the talks were frozen, as Israel Radio reported. Secretary of State Cyrus Vance met with the two countries' delegations separately Saturday, but no talks were scheduled for Sunday.

Begin's letter was in reply to American complaints — including a cable from Carter — that Israel's decision to expand existing Jewish settlements in the occupied West Bank of the Jordan River was detrimental to the peace talks.

Although contents of Begin's letter were not made public, Cabinet Secretary Arie Naor said it contained the same terminology

Begin used at the Camp David summit, stating there would be an "addition of several hundred families to settlements in Judea and Samaria," the biblical names for the West Bank.

"We have received the reaction of both governments to the agreed draft text referred to them," Brown said after conferring with George Sherman, official spokesman for the conference and the American delegation. "The U.S. delegation is not working on another draft now. What happens next in the negotiations remains to be seen."

Convicted Soviet spies will hear sentence today

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — Two Soviets who face a maximum life prison term for espionage are to be sentenced Monday by a federal judge who says they "demonstrated they hold no love for this country."

The pair, both employees at the United Nations before their arrest, were to appear for sentencing before U.S. District Judge Frederick Lacey for their conviction on three counts of espionage. There is no minimum mandatory sentence.

Valdik Enger, 39, and Rudolf Chernyayev, 43, were found guilty Oct. 13 after a two-week trial.

The two were charged with conspiring with a Soviet diplomat to pass U.S. defense secrets to their homeland. The diplomat, Vladimir Zinyakin, was named as a co-conspirator but not indicted because of diplomatic immunity. Attorneys for Enger and Chernyayev said they would appeal.
