

Auditions to be held

Actors, singers and dancers are needed for University Theatre's production of "Once Upon a Mattress." Open auditions will be held at 7 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday at Robinson Theatre with call backs Thursday and Friday in the Arena Theatre.

All persons who wish to try-out must come to the Robinson Theatre at 7 p.m. Tuesday to sign up and be assigned an audition time. Singers should prepare a song, although it need not be one from the show. Scripts and score are on two-hour reserve at the University library.

Poets to speak

The YWCA sponsored Women/Speak series will present "Women Poets" Wednesday at noon in the Erb Memorial Union, room to be posted. Ann Sheffield, Karen McPherson and Cynthia Orr will read their poetry and discuss their experiences as poets.

Scholarship available

Architecture and interior architecture students are eligible for a scholarship to be awarded winter term by Southwest Chapter of the American Institute of Architects.

Application forms may be obtained in the architecture department Office, 205 Lawrence Hall, and should be returned there, completed by Nov. 22. It is the applicant's responsibility to contact two faculty members as references and to supply them with recommendation forms.

The basis for selection is on need and potential in the field. Usually, preference is given to students who have been in school for at least one term and are in the third, fourth or fifth year of their professional academic work. Selection is made by the department committee for recommendation to the architecture faculty.

For more information contact George Andrews in 305 Lawrence Hall, or call 686-3664.
