

Theta Chi sweeps intramural flag football championship play

Theta Chi pulled a double in the University Intramural football championships, winning both the 'A' and 'B' divisions Wednesday afternoon.

Theta Chi's 'A' team won its fourth consecutive intramural championship, defeating Kappa Sigma 14-0 behind two Matt Voight-to-Greg Knecht touchdown passes.

The defending champs scored the first touchdown early in the game following an interception by John Daly. Voight scrambled for about 10 yards to set up Mark Stachon's third down, two yard run for a first down at the Kappa Sigma 19-yard line. Voight and Knecht then connected on the touchdown. The two teamed-up for the conversion and Theta Chi led 7-0.

Kappa Sigma came back with a drive in the closing minutes of the first half and almost scored. Clay Henderson, brother of former Oregon quarterback Jack Henderson, combined passing and a run to move the ball inside the 20-yard line, but Knecht ruined

Kappa Sigma's bid by picking off a Henderson aerial in the end zone.

Later, with about eight minutes remaining in the game, Kappa Sigma put together another drive from midfield after a short Theta Chi punt.

The champions' last score came with about 16 seconds remaining in the game.

In the 'B' game, Steve Elorriaga caught a "moon pass" with about 40 seconds remaining to pull out the victory for Theta Chi over defending champion The Saxons.

Theta Chi held a 6-0 lead at half-time on a touchdown reception by Glen Jacobs. The Saxons tied the score, setting up Elorriaga's heroics.
