Workshop features data base

A demonstration of computer access to the more than 300,000 documents and articles in the Educational Resources Information Center data base will be featured at this year's ERIC collection, which can be searched in printed indexes or by computer, contains information of interest to all persons in education and education-related fields.

The workshop will be given twice—Wednesday from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m., and Thursday from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. Both sessions are in Studio B of the library's Instructional Media Center.

The sessions are free but advanced registration is required at the education-psychology desk, 686-3074.

Beauty and the beasts.

Show the animal in you and treat yourself to a whimsical pendant made of 14 kt gold. Or give them as special gifts. It's a great way to tell someone you think she's as cute and cuddly as a teddy bear. Prices start at $25. Use Mastercharge, Visa or American Express.
