COMING HOME

A strong candidate to win many of this year's Academy Awards, COMING HOME is as powerful a film as you are likely to experience. The story concerns how the Vietnam war deeply affects the lives of three people. Jon Voight's performance as a disabled soldier (who turns against the war) has already won him the Best Actor Award at the Cannes Film Festival. Jane Fonda gives an equally brilliant performance as an officer's wife, whose life changes drastically while her husband is in Vietnam. Bruce Dern plays the husband, who cannot erase the mental scars the war has created for him. Directed by Hal Ashby (Harold and Maude, Bound For Glory).
