

emerald sports

weekly supplement

The Emerald Sports Magazine

Wednesday, November 22, 1978

Women's athletics —

Will the state Legislature catch or pass the buck?

During the upcoming legislative session Oregon lawmakers will decide whether or not to take the Department of Higher Education's advice and include direct funding for women's athletics in the '79-'81 biennium budget. The University athletic program, caught in the financial bind of providing for the men's and the escalating women's programs, would welcome some funding relief. See Page 4B.

