

Military finishes shipping cult's dead

GEORGETOWN, Guyana (AP) — A U.S. military task force, its gruesome task at Jonestown completed, began moving out of Guyana Sunday. Black smoke hung over the airport here as the troops burned uniforms, boots, tents and anything else that might have been contaminated by the decaying bodies at the site of the mass suicide-murder.

The contingent's commander, Col. William Gordon, said a total of 909 bodies were found at Jonestown. The count had fluctuated slightly from Saturday, when the last corpses were removed and officials said 912 were found.

The total dead in the weekend of violence stands at 918, including Rep. Leo Ryan, D-Calif., and four others killed in an ambush at the Port Kaituma airstrip, and four cult members murdered at the sect's Georgetown headquarters.

The body of one Guyanese was reported among the dead in Jonestown. The identity of this victim, the first known non-American among the bodies, was not known.

The evacuation of bodies was finished Saturday night, with the departure of the last American C-141, carrying 83 caskets containing more than 180 bodies, many of them children, to the mortuary at Dover Air Force Base, Del.

"No one has ever been involved in something as massive as this before and it was a distasteful task," Gordon said.

He said all American equipment and personnel have been moved out of the Jonestown area and should be on the way back to bases in the Panama Canal Zone and the United States by Monday morning.

Air Force Capt. John Moscatelli, the task force spokesman, said the bodies "appeared to be in rings or circles with the kids in the center and the larger adults on the outside."

Sadat says treaty will be signed

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—President Anwar Sadat said Sunday he believes Egypt and Israel will sign a peace treaty "sooner or later," despite the current deadlock in the Washington negotiations.

"There are problems and it will take time but that does not mean I am pessimistic, not at all," Sadat told reporters. "Sooner or later we shall be signing an agreement. This is a fact."

But in Israel the state radio said Prime Minister Menachem Begin reaffirmed Israel's position in a Cabinet meeting Sunday that there is no reason to send negotiators back to Washington at this point.

Government spokesman Arie Naor said Israel was awaiting Egypt's reply to the Israeli Cabinet's decision last Tuesday rejecting Sadat's proposal that a timetable for Palestinian self-rule in the West Bank of the Jordan River and the Gaza Strip be included in the peace treaty.

Sadat's statement Sunday was his first reaffirmation that a treaty is still possible since the Israeli rejection. The Israelis, in effect, had given Egypt a "take it or leave it" choice on the American-proposed draft of a peace treaty.

Sadat has ordered a top-level committee to reassess the Egyptian position in the negotiations in light of the Israeli decision.

Israel has said it is ready to sign the treaty and that negotiations are at an end, but Egypt has said it is dissatisfied with the current form of "linkage" made between the treaty, which would normalize relations between the two countries, and negotiations on the Palestinian issue.

From Associated Press reports

PORTLAND—A crowd is expected Monday night when the Portland School Board receives a citizens' report calling for mandatory two-way busing to desegregate the inner-city schools.

The meeting originally was scheduled for the district administration building but was moved to Benson High School in anticipation of a large turnout.

The Community Coalition for School Integration will seek board approval of a school "pairing" plan to be established by Sept. 1, 1980.

Under the plan, each of seven predominately black elementary schools would be paired with one of more predominately white schools. There would be mandatory two-way busing between the pairs.

DALLAS—An amateur photographer took pictures that, according to one photo analyst, may show two people in the Texas School Book Depository double-window from which President John Kennedy was shot, minutes before the shots were fired, the Dallas Morning News says.

The Morning News published, in black-and-white, a nine-frame sequence of pictures taken from color film and enlarged 100 times. They show the double-window on the sixth floor of the depository, from where the Warren Commission said Lee Harvey Oswald, acting alone, fired the shots that killed Kennedy.

In each frame, a faint, light-colored area in the left side of the window changes shape from frame to frame while a similar area in the right portion of the window remains more stationary.

PORTLAND—The Bureau of Land Management is seeking public comment on how to avoid overcrowding popular recreational rivers.

Nationwide rules will be proposed next year based on the comments received before Feb. 9 and on experience from managing such rivers as the Rogue, Deschutes, John Day and Owyhee in Oregon, the BLM says.

Boating, both commercial and private, on part of the Rogue is regulated under an agreement between the BLM and three other federal and state agencies.

Commercial permits are required on the Deschutes, John Day and Owyhee but there are no limits on commercial or private use.

Peace Corps

Being a Peace Corps volunteer means taking what you know, sharing it with others, and learning about life in another country, another culture.

Developing nations want to grow more food to feed their people . . . improve schools and expand public education . . . provide adequate shelter and clean drinking water . . . insure good health care and basic nutrition . . . build roads and transportation systems.

The person who becomes a Peace Corps volunteer must have a strong commitment to helping other people. He or she must be willing to learn their language . . . appreciate their culture . . . and live modestly among them.

If this sounds like you, we'd like to show you the many opportunities beginning soon in 65 developing nations. You can apply now for any openings beginning in the next 12 months.
