

hear and now

Arts and Entertainment

Thursday, November 30, 1978

Sapphire

Colored lights reflect off flashy satin clothes as the performers cavort around the stage. A guitarist leaps from the stage onto a crowded barroom table, keeping up a fast-paced lead. It's not your ordinary rock 'n' roll band. It's Sapphire, the all-women rock sensation playing their unique style of tough and funky, but feminine "cosmopolitan rock." What's that, you say? Find out on Page 4B.