

hate or fear them, those laws are icing on the cake — and we don't have the cake yet."

Queen says she's thought that perhaps gay issues would fade out of the limelight, but "we gay people are not going to go back and curl up in our closets where it's warm and quiet," she says. "We've come too far for that."

She notes that proponents of gay rights are still active, even in places such as Miami, Fla. The murder this week of San Francisco mayor George Moscone and Supervisor Harvey Milk involves the pro-gay rights stance of Moscone and the homosexuality of Milk, keeping gay issues very much in the news, she says.

The GPA office is located in EMU room 318, and is open weekday afternoons. Interested persons can call the office at 686-3360, or 686-8130, Queen's home number, for more information or an appointment.

Tobacco pipes 'alight'

Students will have a chance to show off their pipe-smoking talents and win some prizes in the process today at the EMU.

A pipe-smoking contest open to anyone over 18 years of age, will be held at noon in Room 205, and will be sponsored by the Sir Walter Raleigh Tobacco Co. Contestants will be required to smoke a specified amount of tobacco, while those whose light lasts the longest will receive one of three prizes.

First prize consists of five carved Sir Walter Raleigh tobacco pipes and a can of pipe tobacco, while second and third prizes are three cans and one can, respectively.

Free refreshments will be provided for all contestants.

Christmas faire features crafts

The University Westmoreland Family Housing will hold a Christmas Craft Faire Saturday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The sale will feature hand-crafted holiday gifts and food items. It will be held in the Westmoreland housing community room at 2205 16th Way. The public is invited.
