

EMU hosts Craft Fair

Candlemakers, leathersmiths, pottery-makers and a host of other artisans will put their wares on display this week during the EMU Craft Center's Craft Fair.

The exhibition begins its three-day run Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and continues Thursday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Friday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The fair will be held in EMU 167.

Additionally, live entertainment will be provided outside Room 167, and EMU food service will sell all three days.

Woodwork and stain glass artists, as well as jewelry makers will also be on hand.

U.N. class offered winter

The University political science department will offer a 400-level class on the United Nations when classes get underway next term.

Political science graduate student Paul Johnson will teach the course, which will meet Tuesdays and Thursdays from 1:30 to 2:50 p.m. A discussion section will also be required.

Members of the class will have the option of taking part in a model U.N. next spring in Los Angeles. At the model event, the University class will represent the interests of Uganda, Norway and one other nation.

For more information contact the political science department, 686-4864.

University will fly flag of Finland

The flag of Finland will fly below the U.S. flag atop the EMU flagpole Wednesday in honor of the country's annual Independence Day.

The flag is one of 22 received by the University for use during the 1978-79 academic year in a "Flag of Nations" project designed to honor the home countries of foreign students enrolled on the campus.

Recorder music to be performed

University music students will present "Music for Recorders" Friday at 12:30 p.m. in Room 198 of the University School of Music.

The performance will be the final Music Smorgasbord for 1978.

Graduation set for Friday

The University's Fall Term Commencement will honor 844 degree candidates Friday.

The commencement will start at 8 p.m. in McArthur Court and will include remarks to the degree candidates by University Pres. William Boyd.

Among the degree candidates are 529 for bachelor's degrees, 229 for master's degrees, 84 for doctoral degrees and two candidates for law degrees.

LCC presents choir recital

The annual Lane Community College Christmas concert will be presented in the performing arts theatre Dec. 7 at 8 p.m.

Under the direction of Wayne Kirchner, the concert choir will sing several traditional Christmas carols and will join the baroque orchestra, under the direction of Nathan Cammack, in a performance of the "Gloria" by Antonio Vivaldi.

The chamber choir will sing a short mass by Palestrina. Finally, the baroque orchestra will perform the "Concerto Grosso," by George Frederick Handel.

There is no admission charge.

YWCA needs donations

The University YWCA is once again collecting gifts for children and young people in the mid-Lane area. This is the YWCA's fifth annual toy drive.

Gifts can include toys (new and used in good condition), games, books, clothes and money with which to purchase gifts. Those willing to donate gifts may call the YWCA office 686-4439.

Toys may be dropped off at several homes in the area or at the YWCA, basement of the Health Center, or at 1590 E. 13th Ave. Pickup of toys may also be arranged. The YWCA has set a Dec. 14th deadline for collection of toys. The U of O YWCA is a member of United Way of Lane County.
