

Dreams of sun and surf

Emerald photo

Men's gymnastics coach Bill Ballester seems a little worn-out from the team's rigorous training schedule of six days a week. The team will continue training throughout the Christmas vacation, but for the week of Dec. 14 through 21 will be doing so in Hawaii. Chances are the sun and surf will occupy much of their time before they return to the mainland for the beginning of the regular season.

Rose signs with Phillies

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Now that Pete Rose is a Philadelphia Phillie, his new teammates are enthusiastic — and also cautious — about what the addition of the baseball superstar will mean to a club already packed with talent.

Rose's pals on the National League squad that has failed three years running to reach the World Series are applauding Tuesday's signing of the Cincinnati Reds veteran who quit his old club to seek his fortune in the free agent draft.

"I think I'm more happy than he is," said Phillies shortstop Larry Bowa. "Imagine playing 162 games alongside a guy you idolized your whole career."

But Richie Hebner, the Phillies' first baseman who expects to be traded to make way for Rose, admitted he is "a little disappointed" about the prospect of leaving the pennant contender.
