

We are what you listen to.

The Outlaws—
"Playin' To Win"
With this incredible new album, the Outlaws emerge as America's premier rock 'n' roll band.

Grateful Dead—
"Shakedown Street"
Now, the Dead meet the production genius of Little Feat's Lowell George, and it's a total rock 'n' roll triumph.

Lou Reed—
"Take No Prisoners"
All the raw power of this legendary rock 'n' roll performer, recorded live.

Al Stewart—
"Time Passages"
The new triumph for one of music's most remarkable talents, Al Stewart.

Melissa Manchester—
"Don't Cry Out Loud"
A totally captivating set of extraordinary songs including her newest hit, "Don't Cry Out Loud."

Mandrill—"New Worlds"
Driving energy, and incredible new songs highlight Mandrill's greatest album yet.

Gil Scott-Heron and Brian Jackson—"Secrets"
This dynamic new album features "Angel Dust," the hottest single yet from Gil Scott-Heron and Brian Jackson.

Baby Grand—
"Ancient Medicine"
Great songs, commanding musicianship, and studio wizardry merge on the new album by this electrifying group.

Angela Bofill—"Angie"
Brilliant songs, performed in her own unique style, on a great debut LP.

Dave Valentin—"Legends"
Jazz, Latin and classical stylings on a brilliant debut album by music's most talented new flute virtuoso.

Larry Coryell—
"European Impressions"
Coryell's first U.S. recording on solo acoustic guitar.

Brand X—"Masques"
The strongest album yet by a group now acclaimed worldwide for their original approach to jazz/rock fusion.

12 Reasons...It's a SuperSeason on Arista Records and Tapes.

