Auditions open for plays

All interested singers are invited to participate in casting auditions for the upcoming Eugene Opera! productions of Barber of Seville and Rigoletto. Auditions will be held Monday and Tuesday, from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. at St. Mary's Episcopal Church, 166 E. 13th Ave.

The company will present Gioacchino Rossini's three act comic opera, Barber of Seville in April and Giuseppe Verdi's Rigoletto in June. Both productions will be performed in English.

All roles, major, minor and chorus, are open except for the parts of Rosina and Rigoletto. New performers are especially encouraged to participate. Singers should prepare two contrasting selections with at least one in English. If interested in a particular role it is desirable, but not required, that the participant prepare music from that role. Major and minor roles will be auditioned from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., and the chorus will be heard after 8:30 p.m.

Other staff positions with Eugene Opera! are also open including lighting and costume designer and public relations staff.

Call the opera office for appointments and further information, 485-3985.

Credit offered to volunteers

Volunteer opportunities are available with the Big Brother/Big Sister Program, Exceptional Friendship Program and Swim Instruction for the Handicapped. Credit is offered for both Exceptional Friendship and the swim program through the University's SEARCH program.

For more information, stop by the table in the EMU today, or call the University YWCA, 686-4439.

VOLUNTEERS

The following volunteer positions are open this week. For more information call the Voluntary Action Center at 342-4451.

An area group sales director for a local performing group is needed to arrange bus tours from towns near Eugene.

Someone to help organize games and other socializing events on Thursday mornings is needed for a nursing home and a senior center for recreational activities.

A host or hostess is needed to pour coffee and meet and talk to people from 9:30 a.m. to noon weekdays.

WORKSHOPS

The Career Planning and Placement Service is offering workshops this week in how to write a resume. Anyone wishing to sign up can do so on the bulletin board in Room 246, Susan Campbell Hall. A drop-in orientation session will be held Thursday at 3:30 p.m. for students who would like to know about the variety of services available to them at the Career Planning and Placement office.

The recruiter calendar for Winter Term is now posted.

The Oregon State Police will be at the EMU, Thursday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. to provide information for candidates interested in interviewing for jobs as state troopers.

Listings for immediate full-time permanent jobs are available in the lobby at the Career Planning and Placement Service.

MEETINGS

The American Friends Service Committee will hold a public meeting and lecture today at 8 p.m. at the Eugene Friends Meetinghouse, 2274 Onyx St. The featured speaker is Warren Witte, executive secretary of the Northwest Regional Office of the AFSC.

AFSC activities in recent years have included legal aid for American Indians, work with the Harford Conversion Project, peace education, and peacemaking activities in Southern Africa, the Middle East, Southeast Asia and South America, and community development in many American cities. Anyone who shares these concerns is invited.

The Eugene chapter of Amnesty International, the international human rights organization, is having an orientation meeting for all people interested in getting involved with AI or in learning more about the organization. The meeting will be this evening from 7:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at the Kolonia Center, 1414 Kincaid St.

If you cannot attend but would like to get involved, contact Susan Maxwell evenings at 484-9309.

The Eugene Hunger Forum will meet today at 12:30 p.m. at the Kolonia Center, 1414 Kincaid St. to discuss the topic "Women and Hunger" with resource person Kitty Riley. The filmstrip "As Strong as the Land" will also be shown. Everyone is welcome.

There will be an information seminar for the construction of incidental fee budgets today at 3:30 p.m. in the EMU Century rooms. All programs are encouraged to seek help at this time.

POLICY

The Emerald's briefs column is open to anyone wishing to announce meetings, lectures or miscellaneous events. Briefs are run only once and are subject to space limitations. They should be typed and triple-spaced in a 65-character margin. Include all pertinent information, including the date you want it to run. Also, include a name and phone number in case we have questions. Events with donations or admission charges will not be accepted.

All items must be turned in by 2 p.m. the day before publication at the Emerald offices, Room 300, EMU.

The Bookstore will be open until 8:00 tonight
