

Political scientist to speak

Alan Geyer, executive director of the Center on Theology and Public Policy, will deliver a speech titled "Human Rights Audit" today at 7 p.m., after a 6 p.m. potluck, in the Central Presbyterian Church, 1475 Ferry St.

Geyer, a political scientist, ethicist and author, was the first Dag Hammarskjold professor of peace studies at Colgate University.

Geyer is in Oregon in connection with the statewide "Exploring Global Community" program. Clergy and Laity concerned, the campus ministry, and the Central Presbyterian Church are sponsoring his Eugene visit. He will meet informally with the campus ministry staff and others at 3:30 p.m. at 1414 Kincaid St.

University group to dine

The fiftieth anniversary of the University Mothers will be celebrated Wednesday in Gerlinger Lounge.

It will begin with the annual "Dinner with the President," featuring University Pres. William Boyd. The program also includes Margaret Anderson, vocalist, and a collection of fashions from the past, commented by Lois Newman. Dinner guests are encouraged to wear their own antique fashions.

Reservations for the dinner, which is open to the public, may be made by phoning Carolyn Cockrell at 344-1583, Peggy Seitzinger at 847-5171 or Cora Barde at 345-8077.

Teams to form for competition

College Bowl, a competitive team sport for the mind, is being organized into an intramural tournament.

Persons interested in participating should call Frank at 686-4373, or stop by Suite 2, EMU. The deadline has been extended to Wednesday at 5 p.m.

Dance series begins tonight

The first of 10 beginners' folk dance classes will begin today at 8 p.m. in the Willakenzie gymnasium, 265 Willakenzie Rd.

The session, which is sponsored by the Eugene Folkdancers, costs $7.50. For more information call 343-6226 or 726-7548.

Rape workshop offered

The second in a series of three workshops designed to educate people about ways to protect themselves from assault will be held today at 7 p.m. in the West University Neighborhood Center, 1458 Ferry St.

Counselors from the Rape Crisis Network will present a program emphasizing what men and women can do together to reduce rape. A graphic map of WUN and the University campus will be shown displaying safe routes and areas.

Men are particularly encouraged to attend this free workshop. For more information call 687-5366 between 1 p.m. and 4 p.m.

Ski equipment discussed

The Outdoor Program is sponsoring several ski touring clinics this month, including two on-campus events.

There will be a discussion about equipment for cross country skiing today at 7 p.m. in Room 23, EMU. Examples of different types of equipment will be shown. A ski touring film will be shown next Tuesday at 7 p.m.

Three ski trips geared toward instruction are also planned. Sign-up sheets for these will be posted in the Outdoor Program, Room 23, EMU. For more information call 686-4365.

Business seminar set

An all-day workshop entitled "Starting Your Own Business" will be offered Wednesday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the City Council chambers in City Hall.

For information and registration contact the Chamber of Commerce at 484-1314.
