

hear and now

Arts and Entertainment

Thursday, January 25, 1979

Opus 5

Overture for crafts

Crafts are as much a part of Eugene's personality as sprouts and joggers.

Between Saturday Market, Fifth Street Public Market and the other craft outlets, Eugene has become something of a Mecca for producers and buyers of handcrafted items.

Opus 5 is a local crafts gallery that joined the movement almost five years ago. Five craftpersons fulfilled a dream by opening the gallery, but the realities of the business world almost caused the store to close shortly after it was started.

Then they moved, added an optimist to their staff and came back for an encore that just won't quit. Please turn to Page 4B.