

hear and now

Arts and Entertainment

Thursday, February 1, 1979

MAKE WAR

NOT MONOPOLY

The Nazis used them to plot a takeover of the world, the Pentagon uses them to test new weapons systems and University students are beginning to use them to provide entertainment.

Anyone with $8 to $40 can become a tabletop general and immediately start playing War in the Pacific or figuring out what to do After the Holocaust. One Eugene games store owner claims to sell 15 to 20 war games on a good Saturday, most of them to college fellows and young professionals. See Page 4B.