HEP students to say 'thanks'

Students in the University's High School Equivalency Program plan to say "thanks" to their campus friends Saturday.

HEP students and administrators will sponsor a "Multicultural Dinner" from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. at the Newman Center, 1850 Emerald St.

The session, open to invited guests, will be a way of thanking campus personnel who have offered special assistance to the program in the past year, according to HEP Director James Romero.

Activities at the session will include Native American dancing and the presentation of special achievement awards to HEP students.

Corrections, amplifications

The wrong date appeared for Don Luce's lecture on Iran in Thursday's Emerald. His talk on "Eyewitness: Revolution in Iran" will be held today at 12:30 p.m. in the Wesley Center, 1236 Kincaid St.

Photographers to gather

Newspaper and magazine photographers from around the nation will visit the University today through Sunday for a "Color Workshop" sponsored by the National Press Photographers Association. Heading the instructional staff for the three-day workshop, to be hosted by the University journalism school, will be Dean Conger, an award-winning photographer for National Geographic magazine.

Other instructors for the workshop, which will focus on the growing use of color photographs in newspapers and magazines, will include Charlie Nye, staff photographer for the Eugene Register-Guard and Duncan McDonald, University journalism professor and workshop coordinator.

McDonald says that due to space limitation, workshop sessions will be open only to association members participating in the workshop and a few invited guests. Most sessions will be held in Allen Hall.

Auction planned tonight

The Eastside Community School will sponsor a spaghetti feed and auction today from 5:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. Proceeds from the tickets, which are $1.50 for children and $3 for adults, will go to complete construction of the Edison/Eastside playground.

The event will take place at Eastside School, 23rd Avenue and Onyx Street. For tickets or more information, call 344-9492.

Reserve book lists due

Faculty members and graduate teaching fellows are required to submit spring term reserve bookroom lists by Friday. Faculty with material currently on reserve will be sent separate notices giving them the option of retaining or removing those materials from the reserve lists. For forms and further information call 686-3067. Reserve forms for the Art and Allied Architecture Library are available by calling 686-3637.

WHAT KIND OF A QUESTION IS THAT, CHUCK? HOW CAN YOU ANSWER SOMETHING LIKE THAT?

YOU CAN'T, PATTY... IT'S AN OLD THEOLOGICAL PROBLEM... THERE REALLY IS NO ANSWER...

THAT'S TOO BAD... I PUT DOWN "EIGHT" IF THEY'RE SKINNY, AND FOUR IF THEY'RE FAT!"
