

emerald sports

weekly supplement

The Emerald Sports Magazine

Wednesday, April 25, 1979

The world's most popular game has found a strong following in the Emerald Empire, and the enthusiasm has reached every age group. Five and six year olds now gather every Saturday morning to play, much to the delight of parents and friends. It seem they've all caught

soccer fever