

Lane auction scheduled

The annual Lane County public auction will be held Saturday at the Lane County Fairgrounds.

All items to be sold at the auction will be on display for public inspection in Exposition Hall, Rooms 3, 4 and 5 from 8 a.m. to 9 a.m., when the auction will begin.

More than 50 vehicles will go on the block, about 100 bicycles, miscellaneous office equipment, including typewriters, calculators and adding machines will also be sold.

Prospective bidders are reminded that payment must be made in cash, certified checks or checks drawn on Lane County banks.

Miscellaneous items will be sold beginning at 9 a.m., followed by autos and trucks at about 11 a.m. Heavy equipment and bicycles will be the last items sold.

For additional information, contact Stan Denton, sales manager, Lane County Central Purchasing Division, 687-4135.

36 students to win awards

Outstanding students in the University College of Health, Physical Education and Recreation will be honored Tuesday at the college's annual Honor Awards Ceremony.

The ceremony, open free to students, faculty, staff and the general public, will be held from 3:30 to 5 p.m. in the Dougherty Dance Theatre in Gerlinger Annex.

Students from the college's dance department will perform a jazz production at the session and refreshments will be served.
