AND EUGENE'S PREMIERE OF NUNZIO
If you've seen this movie, you were in either New York or Los Angeles at the time "ANIMAL HOUSE" came out. Its release was lost somewhere between a food fight and a toga party, but it was exceptionally well-received by those fortunate to see it. "NUNZIO" focuses on a mentally-retarded young man who has a fixation about Superman. His relations with his family and the old ladies and teenage toughs of his neighborhood make this a warmly touching film. Forget your finals for a night and see what you missed by being in Eugene.
