BLOW-UP

This modern classic by Director Michelangelo Antonioni brilliantly uses the cinematic form to explore subtle dimensions of art and experience. The story revolves around a hedonistic photographer who stylishly records "Pop culture" on film, but finds his life turned upside down when he inadvertently photographs a murder. Starring David Hemmings, Vanessa Redgrave, and Sarah Miles. Winner of the Cannes Film Festival.

GONE WITH THE WIND

Based on Margaret Mitchell's best-seller novel, GONE WITH THE WIND is one of the best-loved films ever made. Clark Gable and Vivien Leigh star as Rhett Butler and Scarlett O'Hara, a roguish gambler and a pampered Southern Belle whose tempestuous love affair is set against the back-drop of the Civil War and the Reconstruction.

TAKE THE MONEY AND RUN

This hilarious film is Woody's early comic perfection of the perpetual loser. Woody is Virgil, whose neuroses stemming from an unhappy childhood, lead him to the life of an inept crook. His illegible "stick-up" notes, his attempts at escape with a gun carved from soap, and many other sight gags parodies etc. are true eccentric, audacious but hilarious Woody.
