Clark named to ABC post

Lucille Clark, graduate of the University and award-winning writer/producer for KABC-TV Los Angeles' "Eyewitness News," has been named Assignment Editor for ABC World News Tonight.

Clark numbers two Emmys, two national Clarion Awards from Women in Communications and a 1976 Associated Press Award among her achievements.

A graduate of Tillamook High School, where she won her first two journalism awards from the Oregon State Bar Association and the University school of journalism while serving as co-editor of her high school newspaper, Clark also attended Willamette University and graduated from the University of Oregon.

Historical films will roll

John Kent Harrison, a representative from the National Film Board of Canada will present a free public lecture and a screening of several 30-minute films beginning at 7:30 p.m. Monday in 150 Geology.

Harrison is connected with a National Film Board program of interpreting history in the dramatic form and developing dramatic films which deal with contemporary social issues.

Piano classes open for fall

Classes in beginning piano for children and adults will be taught this fall at the University School of Music.

Offered by the school's preparatory division, the on-campus courses will begin Tuesday and continue for 10 weeks. Classes continue through successive terms, and students may change study plans or teachers at the beginning of any term.

Music professor Doris Allen will teach the courses, assisted by Stacey Weston.

For further information on times and fees, contact the School of Music at 686-3761.
